Missionary Society Meets

The community Women's Missionary Society met November 14 at the home of Mrs. Graedvig on Cornell Road. Women from these various localities were present; West Slope, Multnomah, Hillsboro, Cedar Mills and Bonny Slope. At 11 a.m. a prayer service was held following which Mrs. Graedvig assisted by Mrs. Schofield, Jr., served luncheon.

The afternoon was given over to a brief business session after which the speaker of the afternoon was introduced. Miss Burroughs from Terra, India, who is in medical work there, spoke of conditions in India, especially among India's upper class women. She spoke of present conditions prevailing, riots, etc., of food needs, of the need of more doctors, nurses and teachers. She contrasted the educational needs of India's womanhood to that of our American women.

All women are invited to attend these meetings which are held on the second Thursday of each month.

Awarded Trip to 4-H Club Congress

Washington County's three state 4-H club winners Margaret Freudenenthal and Constance Jo Connell of Hillsboro and Charles Hornecker, Cornelius, were guests on the 4-H club broadcast of radio station KOAC Monday evening. The trio discussed their 4-H club project, community 4-H projects, and club activities with Joe Cox, Assistant County Agent.

Miss Connell is assured a trip to the National 4-H club Congress in Chicago December 1 to 5 by virtue of being State Champion in the Style Revue event. Miss Freudenenthal and Hornecker are competing for sectional 4-H club honors and if successful, will also win trips to the club Congress.

Imagination: Something that sits up with a wife who sits up waiting for her husband.

Hick Town: One which, if you see a girl dining with a man old enough to be her father—he is.

A good many times it's better to be what you ought to be than being yourself.

Thurlow Reed To Open Law Office

Thurlow Weed

After four months of construction period, the office building of Thurlow Weed located on Canyon Road at Walker Road junction has been completed and will be opened Monday, November 25. In this building, Mr. Weed, who has been an attorney since 1934, will resume his general practice of law. As an authorized real estate broker, he will specialize in the sale of west of Portland homes and acreage, and as agent for the Northern Assurance Company and the United State Fidelity and Guaranty Company, he will handle various types of insurance, specializing particularly in automobile public liability and property damage and in building fire insurance. Mr. Weed is a notary public. Having recently completed a course in federal income taxation, he is offering his services to the public as a tax consultant.

Thurlow Weed moved to his present location with his parents in 1910, attended the Beaverton public schools, and was graduated from Beaverton high school in 1924. In 1928 he was graduated from Oregon State College with a B.S. degree in Business Administration; in 1934 he was graduated from Northwestern College of Law with LL. B. degree, and after examination by the Supreme Court was admitted to the Oregon State Bar. From 1934 to 1942, while managing the National Iris Gardens, he received national recognition as a plant breeder. One of his originalations, Icy Blue, was selected as one of the 25 best iris to be planted in the gardens of the White House. In 1939 he was appointed by Governor Sprague to serve four years on the Oregon State Board of Education.

In June, 1942, Weed volunteered and entered the army as a private. In September of that year, he was promoted to corporal and sent to Air Force Administration School, upon the completion of which course he was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant. After serving as an instructor in the Administration School, he attended Air Force Intelligence School, then served the balance of the war as intelligence officer with various fighter, bomber, and heavy bomber groups. Weed was promoted to 1st Lieutenant in 1943, to Captain in 1944 and was discharged in March, 1946.

Beaverton Hi Grad Attending Utah University

Margaret Lou Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Jones of Beaverton, is one among the record enrollment of more than 4300 students attending Brigham Young University at Provo, Utah, this year. The largest student body in the history of the school consists of students from thirty-eight states and the District of Columbia and from six foreign countries. Nearly half of the students enrolled at the "Y" are veterans of World War II.

Miss Jones was graduated from Beaverton High School in 1946. She is now a freshman at B.Y. U. tentatively majoring in either sewing or piano.

A woman traveling by train was talking with a man in the next seat. In describing her holiday, she said that she had visited San Jose.

"You pronounce that wrong" said the man. "It's San Hosay. In California you pronounce all the J's as H's. When were you there?"

The woman thought for a moment, then answered, "In Hune and Huly."
