Mothers Club Assists Santa

A good representation of the Westdale Mothers Club met at the home of Mrs. H. W. McKenzie on S. W. Murray Avenue Tuesday evening, November 26. The ladies have almost completed the stuffed animals on which they have worked for several months. These will be given to some baby home for Santa to distribute.

The president, Mrs. R. Webster, read a letter from Madame LeBlond, who is organizer of the nursery in France to which the club is sending a package bi-monthly. Madame LeBlond stated that all types of clothing and foods are desperately needed and gratefully received.

Mrs. E. E. Matson read an article from Hygeia and led the interesting discussion that followed. Guests for the evening were Mrs. B. H. Wilson and Mrs. E. Abbott, who enjoyed the meeting as well as the excellent refreshments of deep apple pie and coffee along with the members.

The Voice of the Church

"I CREATE spiritual values that endure and the priceless ideals by and for which they die, are treasures out of my storehouse. I TEACH right living, justice, brotherhood. If men remembered me and practiced my principles, then hatreds, enmities and wars would cease.

"I SPEAK with assurance in the midst of the strife of tongues. My calling is to proclaim eternal truth and give ideals for every day living.

"I BRING good news, for my gospel is the only remedy for the ills of the world. My essential message is love for God and love for my fellow men.

"I GUARD the public peace and strive to conserve its abiding interests. Without the thread of my weaving, no fabric would endure the test.

"I PROTECT and afford the inspiration for every enterprise. Deprived of my influence, the laws of the land would become the law of the jungle.

"I PRODUCE noble sons and beautiful daughters. Nurtured and cared for by me, they go forth to serve humanity and make a better world in my name.

"I MINISTER to the sick and the desolate, the sorrowing and the stricken, to the bewildered and the cast down. I give myself in love to others.

"I STAND, and for twenty centuries have stood, with the Bible my Magna Charta of liberty, with the Christ who is my King, and with a Kingdom enterprise which has the only adequate program for the human race. I am hopeful and dauntless as I face the future.

"I CALL you to my heart. I plead for your love and allegiance. I wait for your return with my altar fires brightly burning, to come on home.

"I SUMMON you to enlist in an unbroken, mighty army that shall march breast-forward, thru the portals of a dawning day into a Promised Land.

World War I Widows May Be Eligible

Ignorance of the law may be preventing some eligible World War I widows from receiving pensions, says the Veterans Administration. The law requires that:

1. The veteran served ninety days or had a service-connected disability.

2. The widow's income does not exceed $2500 if there are minor children or $1000 if not.

3. The marriage date was prior to December 14, 1944 and that the widow has not since remarried.

If a widow meets these eligibility requirements, she may receive $42 per month for herself, $12 for one child and $6 each for any other minor children.

The VA emphasizes that these rates and income limitations apply only to widows whose husbands' deaths were not caused by disabilities incurred in military service. Income is not a factor in determining compensation in service-incurred deaths and the benefit rate is higher.

Parents Getting Most NSLI Benefits

Parents are sole beneficiaries in 65 per cent of the cases and widows in 23 per cent of the 18,000 National Service Life Insurance benefits now being paid in the Pacific Northwest.

Monthly payments average about $50 and more than 75 per cent of the beneficiaries will receive payments for life.

Question Of The Week

Q. How do I go about filing a claim for pension on the death of a veteran who was my sole support?

A. Obtain a Form 535 from your local VA contact office.

Q. As a widow of a World War I veteran, am I eligible to receive compensation or pension?

A. No, the term "widow" does not include a widow with reference to payment of compensation or pension based on the death of a World War I veteran.

Congressman Norblad Leaves for Washington DC

Congressman Walter Norblad (R) of Oregon and his family left this week by automobile for Washington, where they will arrive shortly before the first of the year.

The Representative has closed his Salem and Astoria offices and during the session of Congress communications should be addressed to him at 1518 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Congressman Norblad was recently reelected by a large majority.

THE BOSS MAKES AN ANNOUNCEMENT

Here's the Proposition!
I'm speaking for all the babies in town. Ordinary milk caps are NOT good enough for us. Can't take chances on dust and germs getting in. We demand the very best protection for our milk.

THE GENTLEMAN IS RIGHT

... and we're meeting his demands with Dacro Protected Milk... the safest package of milk you can buy. The bottle is not merely covered. It's SEALED with a sturdy metal cap... air-tight, dust-proof, moisture-proof. There's complete, scientific protection for our milk after it leaves the dairy. Let one of our rousteaux show you what this protection means to you and your family.

Because the Dacro Cap is a genuine seal, it must be removed the first time with an opener. After that it may be snapped back on the bottle as a re-seal and removed again and again, even without an opener.

There will be a workers conference of the Valley Community U. P. Sunday School staff Monday evening, December 9, 7:45 at the manse.

Howard Foster will preside. J. Kenneth Riley will lead in the study for the evening.

Friday evening, December 13, there will be a general building committee meeting, also at the manse. George C. Pickard, chairman of the committee, will preside.

Thanksgiving Guests
Guests at the H. W. McKenzie home over Thanksgiving week end were Florenz Breitmayer, senior in engineering at Oregon State college, and Ted Breitmayer, graduate student at Washington State.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Templeton had as guests for Thanksgiving Day Mrs. R. P. Kuenke and Larry Blunk.

Missionary Society Holds Meeting

The Missionary Society of the Valley Community United Presbyterian Church met at the home of Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Armitage, Wednesday, December 4, starting at 11 a.m.

Mrs. C. B. Walker led the prayer circle, which was followed by a special study on India, under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Walters.

Mrs. J. Kenneth Riley and Mrs. H. O. Lawrence, assisted Mrs. H. A. Armitage in organizing the pot luck dinner.

Following the dinner, a short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. J. Kenneth Riley, with the missionary topic led by Mrs. George Stroun.

The meeting was completed with a Christmas gift exchange.

As a service to veterans in the community, this newspaper will publish a weekly column of questions most frequently asked contact men of the Veterans Administration in this area. For more detailed information, veterans are to contact or write to the nearest V A contact unit at 1019 S. W. 10th Ave., Portland.

VA Claims Service Is Big Business
While most World War II veterans are concerned primarily with benefits provided them by the G. I. Bill, guaranteed loans and education and training prepaid, the Veterans Administration has another big job—the traditional function of providing compensation and pension for disabled veterans and dependents of veterans of all wars.

About one-third of veterans of World War II in the Northwest have filed claims with the VA for disability benefits. Approximately 53,000 are receiving payments for disabilities incurred during World War II. Payments range from $13-80 to $360 monthly based on the degree and type of disability. Almost half of all claims filed and processed by the VA result in an award.

World War I Widows
May Be Eligible
Ignorance of the law may be preventing some eligible World War I widows from receiving pensions, says the Veterans Administration. The law requires that:

1. The veteran served ninety days or had a service-connected disability.

2. The widow's income does not exceed $2500 if there are minor children or $1000 if not.

3. The marriage date was prior to December 14, 1944 and that the widow has not since remarried.

If a widow meets these eligibility requirements, she may receive $42 per month for herself, $12 for one child and $6 each for any other minor children.

The VA emphasizes that these rates and income limitations apply only to widows whose husbands' deaths were not caused by disabilities incurred in military service. Income is not a factor in determining compensation in service-incurred deaths and the benefit rate is higher.

Parents Getting
Most NSLI Benefits
Parents are sole beneficiaries in 65 per cent of the cases and widows in 23 per cent of the 18,000 National Service Life Insurance benefits now being paid in the Pacific Northwest.

Monthly payments average about $50 and more than 75 per cent of the beneficiaries will receive payments for life.

Question Of The Week
Q. How do I go about filing a claim for pension on the death of a veteran who was my sole support?

A. Obtain a Form 535 from your local VA contact office.

Q. As a widow of a World War I veteran, am I eligible to receive compensation or pension?

A. No, the term "widow" does not include a widow with reference to payment of compensation or pension based on the death of a World War I veteran.
