

Roots of Culture

Good Taste THEN and NOW

A NATION'S OR A FAMILY'S CULTURE HAS ALWAYS BEEN INDICATED BY ITS JEWELRY.

QUEEN NEFERTITI, WITH EGYPTIAN "COLLAR" NECKLACE, ILLUSTRATES THE BEAUTY AND TASTE OF A LOFTY CIVILIZATION.

DURING THE MIDDLE AGES, "BLESSED" BRACELETS WERE WEARED BY THE DAY TO WARD OFF THE PLAGUE.

THE BRILLIANT FRENCH COURT OF FRANCIS I, SCINTILLATED WITH THE JEWELRY OF BENVENUTO CELLINI, SIXTEENTH CENTURY MASTER JEWELER.

TODAY'S FASHIONABLE, MESSED "SNAKE" NECKLACES AND BRACELETS BRING UP-TO-DATE THE ANCIENT SERPENT SYMBOL FOR WISDOM AND GOOD FORTUNE.

"King's Singers" Coming to Metzger

The "King's Singers", a talented group of young people from Pacific College at Newberg will be in Metzger on Sunday, January 12th, at the Metzger Community Methodist Church at 8 p. m. in a special evening service. The service will include quartet numbers both vocal and instrumental, and congregational singing of the old favorite hymns.

At a recent meeting of the Official Board it was decided that a special "Singspiration" service would be held on the second Sunday of every month, under the direction of Rev. D. M. Bowers. A special invitation is extended to everyone in Metzger and vicinity to come to these services.

METZGER

A fine program was given at the Metzger Grade School on Friday night. It was very well attended by a very appreciative audience.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Craughan left Monday for Pullman Washington, where they will spend the holidays with Mrs. Craughan's sister and family.

The Rev. and Mrs. Bowers and son Donny spent Christmas day with Mrs. Bowers' sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Hedgecoke, in Lafayette, Oregon.

Miss Kathleen Miller who has been the guest of Mrs. Clara Rhea is spending the Christmas holiday in San Francisco.

The Whitman family moved to Oswego last week. The home was sold to Mr. John Tobin.

Sergeant and Mrs. William A. Boynton are spending the Christmas holidays with Sgt. Boynton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Boynton.

Youth Fellowship Parties

The Youth Fellowship groups of the Community Methodist Church enjoyed parties recently reflecting the Christmas spirit.

The senior group held its party on December 21st at the home of Willard Westfall. The intermediate group held its party on December 23rd in the basement of the church. Gifts were exchanged and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Deduct PCIC Premium From Income Tax

Income tax time will soon be here again. In filing their January 15 estimates, farmers are reminded to list premiums paid for federal crop insurance as an operating expense deduction.

Metzger Girl Scouts Entertain

The Girl Scouts of Troop 28 gave a potluck dinner for their mothers and dad's on December 13th at the Metzger Clubhouse.

The troop presented a lovely candlelight investiture ceremony. Doris Wegener explained the Trefoll by lighting three candles. Darlene Anderson gave the new girls their pins, and the older girls their year pins. 10 girls represented the laws by lighting candles. Songs were sung at intervals, accompanied by Mrs. Elof Anderson at the piano.

Awards were given to girls who sold the largest number of Christmas cards; Linda Speight followed by Darlene Anderson and Roberta Westfall, also to Doris Wegener and Darlene Anderson for best postures, followed by five other girls. Mrs. Elmer Wegener was awarded her diploma as a trained assistant leader.

Annual Christmas Program Given

The Metzger Sunday School presented its annual Christmas program Sunday evening. Choral numbers were given by young singers, with a candle-light professional. Clifton Bartlett was the accompanist. A group of small children sang a Christmas carol.

A play was presented by five young men of the Young Peoples' Bible Class, and the program concluded with Christmas songs, accompanied by the Westfalls playing the accordion and guitars. Mrs. W. A. Elliott and Mrs. J. L. Westfall were directors of the program. As a climax, treats of candy were distributed to everyone present.
