Birthday Honors

Friends and family of A. N. Wetterborg, S. W. Brentwood Ave. helped him celebrate his 65th birthday, which was Friday, January 31, in great style.

A surprise birthday party was planned by the Collection Department of the Pacific Telephone Company, from which Mr. Wetterborg was just retired, but because of the stormy weather Friday the party was postponed until Sunday. In true telephone fashion, though, Wetterborg was called on the evening of his birthday and had his birthday wishes sung to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wetterborg came from Corvallis to spend the birthday with the family. Sunday the employees in the Collection Department gave their party for Mr. Wetterborg, presenting him with a very complete fishing tackle. Maybe that is why no one was home at the Wetterborg residence Tuesday!
