Hobby Orchestra Needs Cellist

From a little news item tucked into the Oregon Journal Friday, February 14, we learned that the Los Angeles Philharmonic Repertoire orchestra and the Beaverton Hobby Orchestra have much in common! At least, both orchestras are hunting for cellists.

The Hobby Orchestra made its first public appearance at the box social held at the Bethel Congregational church Friday evening, February 14. According to comments heard, the results were very satisfactory. There are now 14 members of the orchestra, with most sections fairly well represented, but there is no cellist, and the need is felt by all.

Of course anyone who is interested in playing any musical instrument is welcome to come play with the group. Practices are still held Friday, 7 p.m. Congregational Church, Beaverton.

Candlelight Ceremony

At a candlelight ceremony at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Klamath Falls on February 7, Miss Mary Alice Blocklinger became the bride of Richard Alex Atiyeh, son of Mrs. George Atiyeh of Canyon Lane.

The former Miss Blocklinger is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Freeman Blocklinger of Chilquin. The Reverend Frederick C. Wissenbach read the service.

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, was gowning in a white taffeta dress with a deep net yoke and fingertip veil of illusion falling from a pearl tiara. She carried a white prayer book with a spray of orchids.

Miss Sally Blocklinger was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress of deep aqua taffeta and carried a bouquet of blue iris.

The two bridesmaids, the Misses Lodel Lamson of Willamina and Betty Ann Layman of Smith River, California, wore old rose taffeta dresses identical to that of the maid of honor and their flowers and headresses were similar.

Victor Atiyeh was his brother's best man and the groom's twin brother, Edward, was an usher, as were Thomas Galt of Vale, David Swanson and James Campbell of Portland.

Misses Ann and Jean McKell of Chilquin assisted at the reception which was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles V. Rugh.

After a wedding trip to Timberline Lodge the young couple will be at home in Portland.

Pennsylvania Visitors
Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hoppeter, 2927 McChesney Road, have enjoyed having Mr. and Mrs. Chester W. Spicher of Indiana, Penn., sister and brother-in-law of Mr. Hoppeter, as guests during the week of February 6.

The Spichers came to Portland from Los Angeles where they had been visiting their daughter since November. The Hoppeters enjoyed showing them the many beauty spots of Oregon, all of which delighted Mr. and Mrs. Spicher. Although this was their first trip west of Pittsburg, Penn., they were very sure it would not be their last.

Much of the conversation during their stay centered around Jimmie Stewart, an Indiana, Penn., is his home town and the children of Mr. and Mrs. Spicher went to school with him.

House Guests
Mr. and Mrs. E. Kuhlman, S. W. McMillan Avenue, have had Mrs. Kuhlman's brother, Maynard Foster of Detroit, Michigan and her sister, Mrs. J. Kimley of Corvallis, as guests.

Guests For Potluck Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. William Boorkman entertained sixteen guests last Saturday night at a potluck dinner. Bridge was played with honors going to Karl Hobson, Mrs. Arnold Rick and Mrs. Chas. Hulings.

Visits Brother
Mrs. Claude M. Ferguson, of Klamath Falls, visited this week at the home of her brother, Rev. George Taylor.

Return Home From Extended Trip

February 6 was the homecoming date of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Van Slyck of White Pine Lane, who enjoyed almost a month's eastern trip.

The Van Slycks left Portland on January 13 for Chicago where Mrs. Van Slyck visited a sister. They went on from there to Atlantic City where Mr. Van Slyck attended the National Cannery Convention. Heading south again, they arrived in Tampa to enjoy wonderfully warm weather, and a visit with another sister of Mrs. Van Slyck's in nearby Clearwater, Florida. Before leaving Tarpon Springs an interesting town where the natives get sponges from the bay and sort and dry them in view of the interested tourists. Their itinerary took them to New Orleans next, and then they returned to the west coast through Los Angeles and San Francisco and home to "God's Country" to quote Mrs. Van Slyck!

Visit Son
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Peck of Corvallis spent Sunday, February 16 with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Norton L. Peck.

Coal Shortage
Mrs. Pleskac, G. I. war bride, living on S. W. Wilson Avenue, reports that her friends in England have written that the coal situation there is so desperate that people wear all their clothing and still are freezing; and that it takes one hour to warm a bottle for a baby, due to the small amount of gas each family is allowed.

Five Years Old
Little Ann Reilly, daughter of the J. J. Reilly, Juniors of Valley View Court, celebrated her fifth birthday by having a party for eighteen of her Gabel School friends recently.

Birthday Party
The Fred E. Webers entertained twelve friends at a bridge and poker party on St. Valentine's Day. Refreshments were served buffet style from a table decorated in the Valentine motif.

Birthdays
Carolyn Runes of S. W. McMillan Avenue, had her fifth birthday Friday, February 7. She entertained eight little girls at her home, where they enjoyed games, ice cream and cake.

Sharon Ann Semon celebrated her second birthday on February 10, with ice cream and cake which she shared with her brothers and sisters and neighbors.

Billy Bolf had many of his little friends in on February 14 to help him celebrate his birthday.

Dinner Party
Mr. and Mrs. Joel Ward entertained at a dinner party on Friday, February 7, for Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Hustad, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Smalley and Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Kirk.

Valentine's Party
Paul and Walter Johnson, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Johnson, of Multnomah Club Road, had a Valentine's Day party for ten of their little friends. The party was also a joint birthday celebration, for both boys were born in February. The little guests made Valentines and enjoyed a Valentine box.
