

School Director Nominated for Zone IV

At a meeting held Thursday, May 8 at the Beaverton grade school, the following men were nominated for the position of school director of Zone IV: Earl Briggs of Raleigh district No. 95, Elmer Toupal of Aloha-Huber No. 170, Albert Trankel of McKinley No. 81 and M. R. Bennett of Barnes No. 57.

Zone Change Recommended

At a meeting of the Beaverton City Planning Commission held Wednesday, May 14, the Commission voted to recommend to the City Council that Lot 1, Block 4, Beaverbrook Addition be transferred from Residential District No. 1 to the Business District.

BARNES PTA INSTALLS OFFICERS AT LAST MEETING OF THE YEAR

The Barnes District No. 57 P. T. A. held its last meeting of the school year, Friday, May 9th, at 8:00 p.m. at the school house, with a very full program. The meeting was called to order and a report of the paper drive was given, which was a very successful affair with $58.77 going to the P.T.A. treasury.

Miss Joyce Marie Marsh, 2nd grade, thanked the P. T. A. for their cooperation and the ice cream treat given the school by the parents, for helping collect the paper. New officers were elected. Mrs. Otto George, past County Council President of Parents and Teachers, was with us and installed the officers, as follows:

President, Mrs. Herman Walters; First Vice President, Mrs. George Berg; 2nd Vice President, Mrs. George Thompson; Secretary, Mrs. Andrews; Treasurer, Mr. L. W. Korn.

Mrs. Otto George presented a president's pin to Mrs. Walters. Mrs. Ray Glasner gave a report on the State Convention. Mrs. Henry Johnson was appointed picnic chairman for our final school picnic which will be May 16, at the school house at noon.

Graduation exercises were held for Miss Arlene Murphy. The lower grades sang two lovely numbers; Miss Suzanne Templeton gave the class history; Miss Arlene Murphy read the will; Miss Virginia Hubbell gave the prophecy.

Miss Suzanne Templeton, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. B. L. Templeton, sang two numbers.

Mr. Henry Johnson, Chairman of the Board presented Miss Murphy the diploma. Awards for perfect attendance were given Miss Joyce Simpson and Harry Hendrickson.

Graduation of Arlene Murphy

Arlene Murphy, the only 8th grader, had a lovely graduation, Friday, May 9. She received three corsages, one from Mrs. Abbott, the primary teacher; one from the P. T. A.; and one from Suzanne Templeton, a school pal.

The program consisted of a Class Will by Arlene; a Class Prophecy by Virginia Hubbell, 7th grade; and two songs and the Class History by Suzanne Templeton. There were two selections from Mrs. Abbott's music classes. Mr. H. R. Johnson, the chairman of the School Board presented the Diploma.

Harry Hendrickson and Joyce Marie Simpson earned Certificates of Award for being neither absent nor tardy for a whole year.

Pet Show

The Barnes School Pet Show was held Wednesday, May 14. The upper grade room brought their pets. The third graders acted as judges.

SCHOOL PICNIC

Today, May 16, the last day of school, we will have a picnic and also achievement day.

The two sewing clubs will exhibit their sewing. The Health Club and the Forestry Club will tell of their year's work.

Mr. Joe Cox and Miss Faye Nichols will award 4-H pins. Suzanne Templeton 7th grade

Book Club Elects Officers

The Book Club met Thursday with Mrs. Violet La Mont. The annual election of officers was held resulting in Mrs. Amy Gibson being elected president and Mrs. Opal Eisenhauer re-elected secretary-treasurer. Miss Eva Davis gave an excellent review of Case's "The Empire Builders."

The next meeting will be a picnic dinner to be held at the Davis home on Canyon Drive. Mrs. Daisy Masters will give the book review and Mrs. Josephine Hunkapillar will arrange the picnic dinner.
