String Classes To Start June 16

Classes in the School for Foundational String Playing, sponsored by Professor Rex Underwood of the University of Oregon, will start June 16 at 9:00 a.m. They are to be held throughout the summer in the Kiwanis Hall, in Beaverton, according to the instructor, Mrs. Ruthann McKenzie. Because of the large enrollment, there will be two classes, one at 9:00 a.m. and one at 9:30. If there is a great enough demand, Mrs. McKenzie will hold a third class, starting at 10:00 a.m.

It is very necessary to know the exact number of students who plan to enroll well in advance of the opening date, because it takes quite a long time for Prof. Underwood to obtain the violins and cellos. For this reason Mrs. McKenzie would like to have the children who plan to study with her, notify her immediately.

Dedicated to Service

OLD ST. LOUIS CATHEDRAL, New Orleans, La. One of the most famous churches in the country, its history dating back to 1794. Here Andrew Jackson joined in services of thanks for the American victory in the Battle of New Orleans.

The ultimate in a beautiful and memorable tribute. This MUST be achieved... for that is the very foundation on which our institution is maintained. For us to fall short of your realization of perfection in service is to have failed in attaining the mark that we are pledged to reach.
