

Kay Kyser and Ish Kabibble are wondering if Friday the 13th of June will be their lucky day. It seems Kay, Ish and the Kyser troupe will appear in Portland's Rose Festival and the Ol' Professor will be honorary grand marshal of the Grand Floral Parade that lucky day. Dates of the Rose Festival are June 10 to June 15.

Young Couple Exchange Vows At Home Wedding

In front of a fireplace decorated with white calla lilies, delphinium and carnations at the R. N. Torbet home on the evening of June 4, Miss Elise Weight of Sonthofen, Bavaria, and Mr. David Torbet, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Torbet of Cedar Mill were united in marriage. The candlelight, double ring ceremony was performed by Reverend Boyd Crane of Pacific University. The bride was attended by Miss Lucille Torbet and the groom by Mr. Robert Beecroft.
The bride wore a cream colored wedding dress which had been worn by the groom's maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. E. Bradley over 70 years ago. A full length veil with a coronet was worn with the dress and the bride's bouquet consisted of pink rose buds and bouvardia. Lucille Torbet wore a pink dress and carried a bouquet of lavender sweet peas and bouvardia.
Mr. Irvin Heinrichs sang "O Promise Me" and "Because." Mrs. J. O. Russell played the wedding march.
Following the wedding a reception was held at the R. N. Torbet home with 200 guests attending. Mrs. George Foege and Mrs. Robert Webb of Silverton served ices and Mrs. Leslie A. Jones served the wedding cake.
Mrs. Torbet, a graduate of Ensebrook, Austria arrived here recently having waited for 1 1/2 years for her passport. Her family had suffered painfully from the war.
The groom has recently graduated from Pacific University.
Among the wedding gifts received by the couple was a family bible which had come across the plains, belonging to Mr. Torbet's great-grandmother and presented by Mrs. E. E. Bradley.
