Colored Choir To Perform

This Sunday evening, June 15 at eight o'clock sharp, the choirs of the First Methodist Church of Beaverton and of the Hughes Memorial Church of Portland are to be presented in a joint sacred concert in the host church.

The program will include the following numbers: "Take My Yoke Upon You," Benton; "What A Friend," Martin; "Prayer Perfect," Stenson; "Somebody Knows," Ackley; "Peace Be Still," Palmer; "Diadem," Ellor; "Trusting In My Saviour," Washburn; "Just Couldn't Be Contented," a Spiritual; "Ezekiel Saw de Wheel," Nobel Cain; "Climbing Up the Mountain," Smith; "No Hiding Place," a Spiritual; "Like A Shepherd Lead Us," Lorenz; "Just For Today," Baldwin.

There will be duet quartette, choir and congregational numbers, Rev. Ennis Whaley, able leader and pastor of the colored congregation at Hughes Memorial Methodist in Portland will conduct the congregational singing as well as his own choir.

Rev. Bowers, the local pastor, states that a warm welcome awaits the entire public to the first joint program of this type known to have been given in Beaverton.

Mrs. Carrie Summers entertained the Cheerio Club at her home last Friday. Her guests were Pearl Newman, Harriette Girard, Margaret Scott and Myrtle Nelson. A nice lunch was served and Mrs. Girard held high score for the guests.
