WEEK END AT NELSCOTT.
Enthusiastic over a week of wonderful beach weather are Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Ansnes and Terry who spent last week at the Sea Cliff apartments in Nelscott, enjoying the sunshine and the fishing.

SEATTLE PARTY. Visiting in Bremerton and Seattle this week end are Captain and Mrs. H. Westerling. Mrs. Westerling's mother, Mrs. T. James and Captain's sister, Mrs. N. Grimstad of Norway.

IN SEATTLE. The K. K. Cornells of Brentwood avenue spent an interesting few days around Seattle recently visiting the boat house at Edmonds, a little town near Seattle, where they enjoyed various water sports.

Last Sunday the Cornells went to Seaside, returning on Tuesday.

RETURN HOME. Mrs. Ralph L. Davis and her daughter Carol have come back to their home on Benz Park Court, after a week's visit in Seattle, bringing Mrs. Davis' nephew, Kenny Mead, back with them to spend the summer.

FIRST PLACE. Mr. Nels Ennderberg is being delayed in building a wing on his home, because swallows built a nest where he has to work. The little ones have hatched, so they should soon leave the nest.

Farmerettes Elect Officers

Mrs. Don A. Denison was elected president of the Fir Grove Farmerettes for the coming year at their meeting June 11 at the home of Mrs. Byron T. Walton. Other officers elected were: Mrs. Walter Rosebraugh, vice president; Mrs. John Taylor, secretary, and Mrs. Edward J. Oberst, treasurer.

On the same evening Mr. P. T. Kershnik presented the club with a check for $50 their prize recently won during the Men's Garden Club Convention.

The scores of the members were tallied for the judging arrangements which have been held at each meeting throughout the year. Mrs. Paul Mead placed first; Mrs. John Taylor and Mrs. Walter Rosebraugh tied for second; and Mrs. Marshall G. Yeager placed third.

CHRISTENING. Robert William, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Schendel, S. W. Patton road, was christened at St. Matthew Lutheran Church, Sunday, June 8th. The Reverend Werner Fritz officiated.

FAMILY MEMBERS VISIT. Wanda Brockman who is a librarian in the Seattle Public Library, was in West Slope recently visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Brockman of McChesney Road.

The Brockmans had as their guests last week end, Mr. Brockman's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Brockman of Greenfield, Calif. Sunday they took their visitors on the Mt. Hood loop trip. The California Brockmans were on their way to Vancouver, B. C.

TO MOVE. Mrs. J. V. Hill and son Johnny, formerly of Stamford, Conn. are visiting Mrs. Hill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack W. Batcheller of Canyon Road. Mr. Hill has been transferred to Tucson, Ariz. and they will move into their home there July 1.

ENTERTAIN. David Butterfield graduated from Lincoln High School last Thursday. He was host to a group of graduates at a party in his home on Fairway Drive after the Junior Prom.

Dr. and Mrs. George H. Butterfield entertained week end guests from Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vincenti who were here with a delegation of Pasadena people to see the Rose Festival Parade. Mr. Vincenti is president of next year's tournament of Roses, held annually in Pasadena.

CATCH LIMIT. Fishermen with a success story to tell, are Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Baxter of Benz Park Drive who with their son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Lester M. Baxter, Junior and Stephen, spent last week at Paulina Lake which is south of Bend. They got their limit of fish and enjoyed a grand trip.

WHEN IT'S YOUR OWN

Because this business is our OWN, we have an extra incentive...to keep customers better pleased. Which explains why we're more conscientious...do so many little un-asked-for "extras"...when we service your car. Once you discover what a BIG difference this can make in driving pleasure; you'll want to join other folks in the neighborhood, who are making OUR place their regular "service home." Give us a try...SOON.
