Men Like This Dress

SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM JIM JUSTICE

It is with keen regret that I announce the necessity of my retiring as resident manager of our company. For several months there has been the possibility that other business activities would require my return to Portland. This has now culminated and I have turned over the active management of our yard to P. W. (Wes) Sheeley, my former assistant.

There is no change in the financial structure of the company and I shall continue to be it's president and will give it my personal supervision. It is not my plan or desire to break all connections with the community and trust that you will still consider me a part of it. In fact I want to remain just as active in the community as other business activities will permit. I will be at the yard several times each month and look forward with keen anticipation to at least saying "Hello" to many of you.

Believe me, the severing of day to day relationship with the fine citizens of this community will leave a void that I shall find most difficult to fill. The past eighteen months have been happy ones. One would go far to find another community as kindly, friendly, and helpful as ours and I am most proud to be a part of it.

In turning the management over to Wes Sheeley I do so with the utmost confidence. He and his organization will carry on our policy of friendly, courteous, efficient service and will see to it that you will always have available a complete line of quality building materials. We are also considering further expansion so that we may serve you even better.

To those of you who have not met Wes may I suggest that you come in and get acquainted with him and his crew. I'm proud of the organization and feel confident that you too will like it.

To each and every one of you goes my best wishes and sincere thanks for your friendly patronage. We shall do our very best to continue to warrant it.

Sincerely,
JIM JUSTICE
