WEST SLOPE NEWS

HOUSE GUESTS

Dr. and Mrs. George W. Redpath of Sylvan have had as their guests, Doctor's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Biddie of San Gabriel, Calif.

The Biddies spent ten days in Portland, which included a very successful day at Depoe Bay where they went deep sea fishing.

CHICAGO GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Raasch of Canyon Crest Road have been host and hostess to Mr. Raasch's sister and her husband, Dr. and Mrs. Munro of Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Raasch entertained several of their friends at an evening party for their guests on July 9.

Mr. Raasch donned a chef's apron for the occasion and prepared a delectable Dutch lunch a la barbecue style.

INFORMAL PARTY

Mrs. Hazel Anderson, mother of Mr. Otis W. Anderson had a birthday celebration given for her on July 10 by her daughter in law.

Eight of her friends met at the Anderson home for an informal evening and to enjoy a birthday cake.

BUFFET DINNER

On Sunday, July 5, Mr. and Mrs. Will M. Cake of Canyon Lane entertained at a buffet dinner for twelve guests in honor of the birthdays of their daughter Marion, and her friend, Miss Merriam Webster of Walla Walla, Wn., both of whose natal days fall on the same date.

The cakes and son Vincent, also entertained the girls at their cottage at Seaside over the 4th.

CLIMB MT. HOOD

Diana Arpke joined the Mazamas last unday in their early morning climb up Mt. Hood.

There were 70 or 80 in the group, Diana being the second to reach the top at 9:30 a. m.

The sunrise as the group was ascending, was very thrilling from about 9,000 feet!

ATTENDING CAMP

Caroline Hulings left Sunday for a Camp Fire Girls camp near Forest Grove, Camp Adahl on Gales Creek. Forty-two little girls left on a special bus for a week's stay.

NEW HOMES

The Atiyeh brothers, Victor and Richard, have recently bought homes in the Broadmoor Park addition on Bertha-Beaverton Highway.

The Atiyeh's homes are on Maple Drive in the new addition.

VACATION

Mrs. E. F. Sinclair and sons of Barnes Road recently spent ten days at Wauna Lake, Wash., swimming and relaxing.

AT THE COAST

Mr. and Mrs. Otis W. Anderson of Gabel Lane are spending this week end at Seaside and Long Beach, Wash., where they hope to be lucky enough to get their limit of clams.

HOUSE GUEST

Miss Grace Simpson of Hamilton, Ontario was a houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Powne last week.

The Pownes took Miss Simpson up to Timberline Lodge during her stay in the states.

AT GEARHART

Mrs. William Rosenfeld and her children of Canyon Crest Drive left Tuesday for a months stay at the Gearhart cottage of Dr. James W. Rosenfeld. Mr. Rosenfeld plans to spend week ends with his family.

FROM KANSAS CITY

Miss Marie Dearing, sister of E. J. Dearing of Birchwood Road arrived last week from Kansas City, Kan. to spend a few weeks in West Slope.

FAMILY GET-TO-GETHER

Mrs. Edward Hurgett of Brentwood avenue enjoyed a family get-together last week end at the home of her sister, Mrs. Elmer Lorene of Silverton.

Others of the family were Mrs. Hurgett's mother, Mrs. Ida Lindsay and Mrs. Hurgett's other sisters, Mrs. Douglas Brady of Stayton and Mrs. Betty Kane of Eugene.

BRIDGE PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Hobson had a bridge party for eight last Friday night.
