Just as they left Portland, the Cavanaugh's met another couple with two little girls with a similar trailer, so this family and the Cavanaugh's and their two little boys drove together as far as Los Angeles.

On their way through California they stopped at Lake Tahoe, Yosemite, Kings River Canyon, Sequoia and Modesto. Several deer came right up to their cars and the vacationers took colored movies of this sight.

During the day they found the weather perfect, but at night the temperature was freezing up in the mountains.
