ENJOYED VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. John Stauffer, former residents of Bonny Slope, returned home recently from a trip to Ohio.

Women In Jail*DOORS OPEN—The guards swing back the doors to admit the Mayor's mother—age 85—and her American friend. The women prisoners gather about as the American tells them the old, old story of the Friend of the Friendless who proved heaven's love by dying for such as them. NEW CREATION—Let these women possess Christ as dying for their sins and God names them right forever. God then moves in and sets up to make them strong and true. Filled with loving concern for the home folks and neighbors. Men must see these as God's new creation. A new race of men.LAND OF THE PROUD—Most of us Americans call ourselves Christians but are we any less lost to God than these sunken women in that Chinese jail? What sin is blackest? All have sinned and the wages of sin is death—BIBLE DEATH—eternal separation from God. Our sins separate us from God forever—BIBLE.

But God so loved you and these jailed women that He gave his Only Born Son that if you should believe on Him as the Saviour who died for your sins, you should not perish but have eternal life—BIBLE.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

A weenie roast was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hendrickson Saturday night, Sept. 27, to celebrate Harry Hendrickson's 11th birthday. Those present were Allen Marsh, Dick and Tommy Brown, Gene Walters, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Templeton and daughter, Suzanne, and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Haack. The honored guest received many nice presents from his parents; a new bicycle, a hunting knife and a bright green cap. He received a game, "Deer Hunting", from the Brown boys. Everyone had a lot of fun.

Swiss Loraine Hits High Mark

Elsie the Cow and Ferdinand the Bull are high on the lists of boastful bovines. But Beaverton comes to the front with another cud-chewing personality, in Arbor Rose Loraine, 120525, a registered Brown Swiss cow owned by Albert Meier and son, of Beaverton.

Swiss Loraine recently completed a 305 day lactation record, on herd tests, and has an official mark of 11,242.4 pounds of milk and 497.82 pounds of fat, in twice a day milking.

Brown-eyed and demure, Swiss Loraine is but four years old and placidly proud of the high mark recognized in her behalf by the Brown Swiss Cattle Breeders' Association of Beloit Wisconsin.

Dedicated to Service

Amidst the reverent inspiration of our beautiful chapel this last tribute becomes a thing of everlasting grace. The memory of the dignity and understanding with which the service is conducted will be etched forever in the minds of those remaining. This it is our duty to fulfill.

Scout Troop 49

The Westdale Mothers' Club held its regular meeting Wednesday evening, October 1st, at the home of Mrs. Thelma Rohrer. Guests of the evening included Mrs. McCormack, mother of Mrs. Elmer Matson, and Mrs. Lee Krieske.

The need for a new Girl Scout leader for Troop 49 to take over the work carried on by Mrs. Alma Ward last year, was brought before the club, the fact stated that this year's schedule planning is completed and that each girl is anxious to resume scouting duties. Mrs. Bobbie Abbott volunteered to lead the group. Mrs. Henry Bastian, of Route 2, Beaverton, will be assistant leader and the troop will receive cooperation of the Westdale mothers.

Mrs. Lucille O'Neil led the discussion on Lesson 2 of the Home Study Course of Social Hygiene Guidance.

Members anticipated the holiday season as they began the stuffing of Christmas toy animals.

The hostess' choice of dessert was glorified pumpkin pie with whipped cream, and coffee, which drew forth much praise from her appreciative guests.

Tanda Group Meets

The acting president called the meeting to order, October 2, 1947. It was moved and seconded that we send for our ceremonial gowns.

Ruth Rogers made chocolate chip cookies.

Those present were: Audrey Kilgore, vice-president who acted in the place of President Janet Blackburn, who was unable to come; Ruth Rogers, treasurer; Jean Cowie, Secretary; Phyllis Mead and Joan Eastman.

We made miniature furniture for our room which we are supposed to demonstrate on how to clean it.

We regret that our friend, Mrs. Earl Barnes, has been sick and we wish her a speedy recovery.

By Jean Cowie Secretary.

Rev. Genne At Bethel Meeting

Bethel Women's Fellowship held their first luncheon meeting of the fall season, on Wednesday, October 1. They had as guest speaker the Rev. Wm. Genne, newly appointed Chaplain at Pacific University, who spoke on the subject of race relations. The worship part of the program was a Choral reading by Mrs. Chas. Schivley, Mrs. Walter Van Kleeck, Mrs. Bill Grauer, Mrs. Don Long and Mrs. Belle Walker, with the prayer by Mrs. Phillip Hyde. Hostesses were: Mrs. E. Webb, Mrs. Barrett Randall, and Mrs. Paul Knepp.

Tuesday October 21, will be a big night for Bethel Church. Instead of the regular evening meeting of the Women's Fellowship, there will be a family pot-luck supper meeting. A most interesting program is planned with Miss Joan Gordon as guest speaker. Miss Gordon has only just returned from Oslo, Norway, where she was sent as delegate to the World Christian Youth Conference. She will bring with her, movies taken at the Conference.

New Books

Beaverton public library announces its weekly selection of new books which are ready for circulation.

In non-fiction, "I Choose Freedom", by Victor Kravchenko. Adult fiction: "Last Wagon Train", by Zane Grey; "The Turnbells", by Caldwell; "The Two Mrs. Abbotts", by Stevenson.

Mystery, "Marked for Murder", Halliday.

Children's books, "Flamingo Feather", "Animals Here and There", "Joe's Boys", by Alcott.

Mrs. W.H. Grauer, librarian, reports demand on mystery books leads other adult books by about 5 to 1.
