INSULTED HER

FILTHY RAGS—"You insulted me when you said all the good I had done was but filthy rags. And I was put out with the Bible where you said I could find it. So Jane told him. Yes—We are all as an unclean thing and our own good deeds are but filthy rags to God. See Isa. 64:6—BIBLE. The words kept running through Jane's mind until she came to despise her many good deeds. All she could do could not wipe out the stain or even one sin. Jane saw herself a sinner and lost.

RAGS WON'T PASS—We buy and sell here on earth and we get the notion we can offer God some good deeds of our own and buy heaven. A sinner's good deeds are but rags to God. Name yourself a sinner and lost and know that Christ died for you and cleared your page. Have faith in God's word that Christ's blood has washed away your many sins. God honors that coin.

NEW LIFE IS PROOF—Lay hold on Christ as your own Saviour and know what God wants you to know. Know yourself as raised out of death into new life. So God sees you. Now do your part, which is to die to self and look utterly to Christ. Live by Power From On High. Let Christ make you new for the home nest and about town.

This space paid for by a Seattle family. R. W. McChesney Rd., Portland 1, Oregon.

George Washington could very competently hold his own in the art of repartee. One day he sat at the table after dinner, he complained that the fire burning on the hearth behind him was much too large and too hot. "But, sir," observed a guest, "it behooves a general to stand fire."
