PTA Sees Movies

The picture "Human Growth" was shown to the parents and teachers of Barnes school, January 9. Dr. Adolph Weinzirl representing the E. C. Brown Trust, had those present to fill out questionnaires for an opinion survey as to the suitability of showing this film in a course of study in the schools. Before showing the film, Dr.

Weinzirl told of how the E. C. Brown Trust originated. After the death of Dr. Brown, the interest from his estate was set aside for the teaching of social hygiene to the young people of Oregon, especially the subject of venereal diseases.

The work has progressed seven years, so now, literature on any question of family relation can be answered reasonably.

Movies and slides have been made to promote a word discussion in groups and possibly class room study.

After the showing of the film, refreshments were served. The acting hostesses were Mesdames B. L. Templeton, E. H. May, C. Daniels and Varner.
