SUGGESTS "CHAPEL HILL"

The Editor:
We have long felt the need of a name for the area bounded by Ellis Ave. to Wilson Ave. and, therefore, appreciate the inquiry and suggestion made in last week's Enterprise. May we suggest "Chapel Hill" for a name.
St. Matthew's Lutheran church occupies the crest of the hill, and this summer the Baptist church will be constructed at Lake Rd. "Chapel Hill" would be a reminder of divine and spiritual things, the need of which is apparent in the perishable things of life. View of roadway signs advertising Werner J. Fritz, Pastor St. Matthew's Church

SUNDAY VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Kuenzi and family were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Susie Losli. Mrs. Kuenzi is a daughter of Mrs. Losli. After dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Kuenzi went to visit Mrs. Kuenzi's sister, Mrs. Arthur Gould.

FROM OREGON CITY

Dickie Miller, of Oregon City, visited Curtis Wilson at his home Sunday.

FOOD

A meeting of the Women's Council of the Church of Christ was held at the home of Mrs. Gladys Huddleston, Friday, Jan. 23. Twenty-five ladies were present. A delicious dessert luncheon was served, after which an interesting program was presented.
An active year is planned for the missionary council of the Church of Christ. A box of food and other essentials will be sent each month to some foreign field where they are so badly needed. Anyone wishing to contribute for these boxes should contact Mrs. William Jacobs, who has charge of this program.
These things are acceptable: food stuffs, such as sugar, salt, cocoa, shortening, rice, dry beans, soup powders, towels, vitamins, other medicines, both new and used clothing, etc. A package may contain 22 pounds, but any amount is welcomed, as the need for these boxes overseas is great.

Saturday afternoon callers at Mrs. Blanche Reavis' home were Mrs. Jim Cowie, and Mrs. Floyd McGathen.

BOY CARPENTERS

The Carpenters club for nine-year-old boys held its weekly meeting Saturday at the home of Mr. Phillip Mead, on the Bertha-Beaverton highway. Mr. Mead is taking Mr. Gilmore's place as leader of the group, as Mr. Gilmore's schedule is too full to permit him to take the group at this time. These boys were present: Donald Peck, Roger Peck, Dean Mead, Malcolm Clement, Jimmy Cowie, and one other boy who did not give his name.
The boys elected officers at this meeting. Donald Peck was elected president, Dean Mead, vice-president, and Malcolm Clement, secretary. The boys were very enthusiastic about the club's organization and the opportunity to learn how to use tools correctly and build things themselves.

SISTER VISITS

Mrs. Bertha Whitney visited her sister Mrs. Arthur Gould Sunday.

OES CARD PARTY

Social club of Beaver Chapter, OES, plans a card party to be held Thursday, February 5, at the Masonic temple in Beaverton.
A dessert luncheon will be held at 1 p. m., following which will be individual card games.
Mrs. Margarete Scott is chairman.
