Her Last Words

Just lately a sixteen-year-old girl lay dying with T. B. and at the last moment she raised up and reached out her arms with a shout—Jesus I'm Coming and fell back dead.

A Bible had come into the girl's hands and this she read and was given faith to lay hold on Christ as the Son of God who had died for her sins. Right then when she came into heart-faith in Christ God made her his own with the gift of eternal life.

The Bible says that Stephen looked up into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. And could not heaven open for this child of faith also? BLESSED ARE THE DEAD WHO DIE IN THE LORD.—Bible.

HIWAY MILK BATH

The recent combination of fog and ice was responsible for at least one accident on the highways in our locality. Last Friday a truck loaded with milk cans collided with a late model Pontiac sedan. Mr. C. W. McPeak, of North Plains driver of the truck, was not injured. The driver of the car, a young fellow just released from the army, also escaped injury. The accident happened on the main highway at the culvert just west of St. Mary's of the Valley Academy. The milk truck was overturned, the front wheels sheared off and milk cans and milk scattered over the highway. The front end of the Pontiac was also badly damaged.
