BAPTISM SERVICE

Three cousins were included in baptism ceremonies Sunday morning at Sunnyside Methodist church in Portland. Included was Nancy Ann, the small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Uppinghouse; Victoria Louise, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Miller and John Malcolm, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hansen. The Messdames Uppinghouse, Miller and Hansen are sisters. Following church, Mrs. Uppinghouse entertained her family at dinner.

LUNCH HOSTESS

Hostess Monday at a luncheon was Mrs. L. S. Uppinghouse honoring her sister, Mrs. Vernon Hansen. Mrs. Hansen expects to leave soon to make her home at Fort Lewis where her husband is practicing medicine.

PTA RUMMAGE SALE

Proceeds from the PTA rummage sale at the Rummage Sale Center in Portland, Monday, Jan. 26 netted $58. Cotton rags had been collected simultaneously to be sold to the Cedar Mill garage. Additional funds will be derived from them.

COLDS, FLU AND POX

Absenteeism is running high at the Cedar Mill school with colds, flu and several cases of chickenpox reported.

BROTHER PASSES

Mr. E. S. May received word last week of the death of his brother, William May, at Burbank, California. The deceased's two sons John of Portland and Clifford of Astoria accompanied by his nephew, Gene flew to California to attend funeral services.

VACATION SOUTH

Mr. and Mrs. August Hickethier and son Lloyd report a pleasant vacation spent in Southern California and Northern Mexico during the latter part of December and early January. A boat trip to Catalina island was included in their travel.

FIVE VOTERS

Only five voters were present Wednesday evening, Jan. 28 to vote on the preliminary budget for the coming year at the Cedar Mill school.

FATHER—SON

It is hoped that the father and son banquet on Friday evening, Feb. 13 at the schoolhouse will be well attended. Dinner at 6:30 followed by entertainment and a talk by C. Bryon Walker, scout commissioner.

McKinley News

NEW BABE

Mrs. Francis Reichen and her small son are at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Meier. The baby was born at Wilcox Memorial in Portland.

SEEKS SECRETARY

Mrs. George Foege has resigned as secretary-treasurer of the Priscilla club. Someone to fill the vacancy will be elected at the meeting Thursday of this week.

SECOND OUTBREAK

The George Struger home caught fire the second time last Wednesday and was damaged in the same part as before and more extensively in the furnishings from the chemicals applied by the fire fighters. The repairs of damage suffered from fire a short time ago had just been completed about two weeks ago.

The fire started in the chimney as before from a defect it was thought. Repairs are again in progress.

NEW HOUSE

Albert Trankle has started construction of a new house on one of the sites in his acreage.

COMMUNITY BAZAAR

The McKinley community club met Jan. 27 at the home of Mrs. Jensen. Mohr to make definite plans for a bazaar which will be held Saturday, March 13, at the school house. The ladies are planning many attractions with fancywork, refreshments, etc. More about this in the future. The next regular meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gordon Addington Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 10.

SEATTLE GUEST

Kenneth B. Comstock, nephew of Mrs. Carl Rogers was her guest last week. He is from Seattle and was auditing in Vancouver, Wash. Another visitor in the Rogers home last week was Mr. Roger's nephew, Nolan K. Ford of Los Angeles. He stopped off en route to Seattle by plane.

SUNSET HIGHWAY WORK

Rocking of Sunset highway west of Cedar Mill was in progress again last week.

NEW SCHOOL

A budget totaling $5,265.90 was passed at the school meeting at McKinley, Jan. 30. A straw vote was taken by those present to determine the sentiment regarding the size and location of the land to be purchased for addition to the school grounds. The vote was in favor of purchasing land to make the grounds square with more road frontage. This has not been definitely decided and the board will sound out the opinion of school patrons further and a definite decision will be made later.

15TH ANNIVERSARY

About 30 guests, neighbors and members of Priscilla club enjoyed a party with Mr. and Mrs. William Parker last Saturday evening. The affair honored their 15th wedding anniversary which occurred last October. Priscilla club which sponsored the party postponed it because of the death of Mrs. Parker's mother at Kelso, Wash., at that time.

The Parkers have recently completed a large building on their property. One end of this is a large party room. There were four tables of pinochle and one of cribbage.

Prizes for high score were won by Mrs. Sam Smith and J. A. Wisemaa, low by J. P. Meurer. The club presented the Parkers with a gift of ten pieces of Fostoria glassware.

TWO DAY GUEST

N. Stenson of Olympia, Wash., was a guest in the Jesse Hansen home two days last week.

West Slope News

SEE BROADCAST

Members of Girl Scout troop 120 from Raleigh school spent an interesting afternoon recently visiting radio station KPLM, on Healy Heights. Mr. and Mrs. Goard were the station's gracious hosts, and the girls saw a "live" broadcast, as well as a "platter" broadcast. Mr. Goard explained how transcriptions were made and many other broadcasting procedures. Mr. Paul Briggs and Mrs. Bain made the trip possible by providing transportation for the troop.

GUESTS OF HONOR

Mrs. M. E. Holeman of Omaha, Nebr., who is visiting her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Holeman of Multnomah Club road, was guest of honor at a bridge party Saturday night.

LAYMEN'S LEAGUE

The monthly meeting of the Lutheran Laymen's League was held at the Pilgrim Lutheran church Sunday evening.

Chairman Larry Gross called the meeting to order, and Rev. Gerken led the opening prayer. The entertainment committee announced another movie to be shown in the near future.
