QUEEN OF SPRING
Queen Janet Rae Shofner, Crown Princess Virginia Talbert, and six lovely princesses will rule over the Spring Reign, March 5 in a gala affair.

Escorting the queen will be Wilbur Miller, while Sid Tucker is Virginia's choice. The princesses and their partners are: Connie Byrd and Dick Hesselgeser, Selene Gallien and Albert Walker, Janet French and Bob Massingill, Pat Johnston and Duane Rasmussen, Jean Turnbull and Denny O'Donnell and Nancy Nagues and Gene Pfeifer.

SENIORS WIN AGAIN
The unbeatable senior class added the March of Dimes contest to their long list of victories in the battle for the service flag, Friday when a grand total of 150 dollars was amassed in the three day drive.

Replacing the old service flag, which is filled to the gills with class winners, will be a new service plaque, with the names of the classes winning future drives to be engraved on it.

BEAVERS' ALMOST
Leading 23-18 at halftime, the Beaverton Beavers lost four regulars via the foul route in the third period and went down to defeat by 38-32 to the Mac-hi Grizzlies on the Beaver court, February 3.

Performing in a demon-like manner, Chuck Hullings repeatedly stole the ball from the opposition, and took scoring honors with 13 tallies for the Beavs. Next in line was Denny O'Donnell with 7.

BABY B'S SLUMP
The Baby B's took it on the chin with a 25-20 loss administered by the McMinnville B squad in the preliminary battle. Center Bill Bernhart led the Beaver attack with 7 points.

NO YR. OF YEARLINGS
Dunking in a measly total of two points, the BHS Yearlings gave their poorest showing of the season as the Mac Babes walked away with a 24-2 verdict on the local floor February 3. Jerome Olson dropped in the lone bucket.

MARINE COME ON
"Join the Marines and see the world" were the words of a marine officer at assembly last Friday as he gave the lowdown on the Marine reserves. A movie which further emphasized his words was then presented.

JUNIORS SEEK $$$
Selling hot dogs, candy and pencils are a few of the ways that the financial committee of the junior prom, under the leadership of Betty Moshofsky, is raising funds for the big event. The decoration committee with Janet French as the leader, has decided to have a Chinese setting with the theme as yet undecided.

25 DEMOLAYS IN
A Demolay chapter has been set up in Beaverton. Feb. 3 marked the initiation day with 25 fellows present. Officers will be elected at a future meeting.

INTRAMURAL
Intramural basketball—call it football if you want—will get underway this week with two leagues, one of five men teams and the other of three, to schedule action. Varsity and B squad players are not eligible.

RESCUE PARTY
Jack Ross, Beaverton graduate of '47, figured in the discovery of the body of a skier at Mt. Hood, Feb. 4. Jack was one of a large number of rescuers searching for the lost person.

H. S. ART GALLERY
Some excellent drawings, the work of the art class under the direction of Miss Gertrude Schoeller, were on display last Friday. The masterpieces were sketches of various students.

CHEESE HUNT OFF
Because of the probable icy conditions of the road to Tillamook, the Beaverton game to be played there last Friday was postponed.

ALLEY SALLY
Watch the pins bowl over when the newly formed Tualatin Valley Sports club bowling team takes to the alleys. Their first meeting was held last Saturday at the Rose City bowling alleys. Bud and Ed Capen, two outstanding bowlers, have offered to head the group.

BASEBALL CLUB
For the first time in the history of BHS, baseball will be included in the athletic setup. The controversial question was decided at a boy's meeting Friday with a large majority voting for it. Although Beaverton may not get entry into the TYV league yet this year, next season will see the first squad ever representing Beaverton high.

SENIOR'S PREXY
Al Walker, the senior with the two talented fists and speedy hurdler's legs, was the people's choice at the class meeting Feb. 9 to head the senior class the second semester.

LEADS JUNIORS
His many qualities combined with his Bob Hope speaking ability, gave Jack Godwin the junior president role and the privilege of being host of the junior prom.

TOP SOPH
Always smiling and making new friends, Dale Lindsey was elected the sophomore prexy for the term.

FROSH B'GOSH!
Carrying on the traditions of his family, Jimmie McKnight, likeable freshman, became the new president of his class.

THEY ALSO SERVE
Other officers chosen by their classes are: senior vice president, Wilbur Miller; secretary, Selene Gallien; and treasurer, Raphael Rabe. Junior vice president, Al Davis; secretary, Fanny Lee Zook; and treasurer, Hans Stroeve.

Sophomores: Norman Haines, vice president; Dorothy Lindsey, secretary; and Bud Hansen, treasurer. Freshmen: vice president, Paul Strandberg; secretary, Anita Ghiglietti; and treasurer, Bill Byrd.
