

progress report 1948

Today we have the greatest number of telephones in operation in our history. Daily telephone traffic has far surpassed the busiest rush hours of the war years. Our expansion program for 1948 calls for an even greater number of installations than during the record year of 1947. We are doing everything possible to meet the record demand for service—and, in all fairness, will give first attention to those who are on our waiting list.

Mothers' Club Of Westdale Reveal Favorite Recipes

The Westdale Mothers' club met for a social and food sale Wednesday evening, Feb. 18, at the home of Mrs. Marie Adams with attendance of 19, which included three guests, Mrs. Thelma Rohrer, Mrs. Mattie Armenaki and Mrs. Carol Cook. The food sale, consisting in most cases of baked desserts, substantially strengthened the treasury, besides providing the fun of sampling another neighbor's food.

In keeping with the kitchen scheme, each mother made her appearance wearing her prettiest apron, and presented to the group in an exchange of ideas, her favorite one dish recipe. Needless to mention, all appetites were decidedly increased.

A short period of bingo games was enjoyed with prizes of kitchen items.

Mrs. Adams served colorful and tangy cherry tarts with coffee. Lovely bouquets of red snapdragons and tulips were most appropriate to the season.

CHURCH DINNER

A very pleasant fellowship dinner was served in the Tualatin church dining room at the conclusion of church services Sunday. The dinner was held in honor of the John Schirman family who are leaving soon to make their home in Salem. Mrs. Schirman was presented with a lovely tablecloth from the WSCS of the church.

America Needs Religion

THEY ALSO NEED TO LEARN CHRIST'S WAY.
BRING THE CHILDREN TO CHURCH SCHOOL

FREEDOM OF THE HUMAN WILL makes religion "elective," and that is as it should be. But too many have voted to leave it alone.

There was a time when a state church had responsibility for the religious training of all citizens. We have decided—rightly so—that it is not the function of the state to sponsor a religion. As a result religion has become an elective in civic life—something to take or leave alone. We have been coasting on our accumulated reserves of religious tradition.

There are a good many cracks in the wall: increasing juvenile delinquency, an alarming divorce rate, a distressing number of alcoholics, frequent tragic consequences of trial and error living on the part of many youth. The news any day presents exhibit after exhibit of these situations.

It seems clear that our way of life will go to pieces unless we keep the resources of religion strong. We have reached the point that calls for action. One of the best ways to encourage religion is to teach children and youth to practice it. This must be done primarily in the home, yet it also needs the guidance and focusing that comes through religious teaching in the churches of the nation. The church schools, though far from perfect, remain the only agencies entirely devoted to religious nurture. These schools for religious education are just as good as we Americans make them.

The churches throughout the United States are stressing the importance of religious education. They should have the support and cooperation of every intelligent citizen.

Respectfully yours,
Beaverton Ministerial Assn.

MISSIONARY GUILD

The Missionary Guild of the St. Matthews Lutheran church met Tuesday evening, February 10 in the club room of St. Matthews church for its regular monthly meeting.

The meeting was opened with the singing of a hymn, followed by the Scripture lesson by Mrs. Renner and prayer led by Mrs. Paul. A discussion of the evening's topic: "That Minds Be Not Blind in Atheism," was led by the president, Mrs. Renner, and the Bible study on the Book of Exodus was continued. A number of other interesting and enlightening articles in the Women's Missionary Outlook for February were discussed and read.

The business meeting followed, and new program booklets for the year 1948 were presented to the members. The meeting was closed with prayer, after which the hostesses, Mrs. Hanson and Mrs. Paul served a delicious lunch.
