BEAVERTON ★ High Lights ★

By JOE RIGERT

LOSE LAST 3 MINUTES

Holding the powerful West Linn Lions on even terms until the last three minutes, the Beaverton cagers bowed down to defeat by 51-39, February 17 at Linnville. The locals played superior brand of ball in the first half, behind only 20-18, but after a deadlock with 3 minutes to go, they faded into oblivion. O'Donnell with 13 points took scoring laurels for the locals, while Hulings had 10.

NEWBERG'S WARNING

Newberg's league-leading Tigers gave the Beavers a hoop lesson last Friday, when they spanked them by 40-24, thereby serving note of what to expect of them at the state tourney. Chuck Hulings, Bevo guard, snatched scoring honors with 13 tallies. Lalli collected 6.

B'S BUMP NEWBERG

Incredible is what the Beaver B squad was last Friday when they played two overtimes to knock down the Newberg B's in a thriller, 38-36. The scrap and downright courage of the boys has been unmeasurable in the past few games. Don Metcalf potted 15 points to top the locals and Bill Bernhart had 9.

West Linn's B's, however, had little trouble taking the Bevo youngsters, with a 47-38 margin acquired. Bill Bernhart, promising local freshman center, tipped in 15 counters.

WINLESS YEARLINGS

The winless frosh squad of Beaverton continued their losing ways, with the West Linn Babes taking a 31-27 victory, and Newberg administering a 29-28 defeat. The latter affair was a heart-breaker. Jimmy McKnight scored 13 for the Beavers in the Newberg tilt, and Jerome Olsen banked in 10 in the other.

TRACK SWIM?

The TYV league might as well vote to have an aquatic loop, instead of the usual track events. Prevailing rain and more rain tend to make ideal swimming conditions. Old man weather must be settling a personal grudge, or else he is asleep on the job.

BUMBERSHOOT FROLIC

Emphasis is being put on "Reign" (rain that is) as the Spring Reign draws near. Scheduled for March 12, the event will feature the royal court with other attractions promised. This extravaganza is unequalled in color and beauty (girls of course).

IT'S A SNAP!

Miss Bernice Conoly's photography students have been about the busiest people in BHS the past few days, as they are taking pictures of anyone and everyone for the '48 annual. The publication is going to be the best in the schools history according to staff members (this commercial was not prompted, but merely voluntary).

INTRAMURAL ON

Knock-down and drag-out intramural basketball is in full swing with two matches being played last week. Only minor casualties occurred, but the leagues are still young. Don Easton's squad emerged victors over Bob Richardson's proteges in five man action, and the "Triple Terrors" (Oldenburg, Godwin, Stroeve, Mulhausen and Wilson) tripped up the hoopers of Cecil McCallem in the three man league.

MILK SHAKE BOUNTY

"I always lose bets, so I will make a proposition instead," stated Melvin Wells, band instructor, at the assembly Friday. So Mr. Wells offered the Beaverton hoop squad and coaches a giant milk shake apiece if they could win a ball game by one point or better. Although the boys missed out on the shakes in their last game, they are hoping to collect soon. With this added incentive, the cagers should soar to new heights.

TSK! TSK! WHAT DOINGS!

The big sleuth of period 3 history, namely Bob Richardson, exposed the crime of his fellow classmate last week.

"I know a boy who worked all summer and quit just as he made $499 so he wouldn't have to pay income tax, then the next summer he collected from the unemployment plan," related Bob.

"Sure I did, and I got $12 a week," burst out Don Rogers.

CAMP FIRE GIRLS

The second and third grade Bluebirds met February 12, in the grade school cafeteria. Both the second and third grade groups held business meetings. The second graders elected for president, Nancy Jo Ely; secretary, Gail Griffiths; Linda Rae Irvin, treasurer.

The third graders elected for president, Judith Byrd; secretary, Joyce Gregory; treasurer, Pauline Drew.

At the close of the business meetings the girls sang some favorite songs and were served heart-shaped cookies for a Valentine treat. On Feb. 19, their next regular meeting day, the second and third graders also held short business meetings, in which the girls discussed the finishing of the Junior Red Cross boxes, and the necessity for bringing their dues.

It is very necessary that they bring these five cent dues so that they will have funds for handicraft. After the business sessions were adjourned, the girls went out in the play shed where they played some games and sang some songs.

The Tanda group met for their regular meeting at the Nazarene church on Thursday. Mrs. John Huson, of the Hillsboro Camp Fire office, visited and brought some supplies. She also brought the Junior Red Cross boxes which the girls are going to fill to complete their requirements for the birthday project.

The guardian made a report on the money made for January and urged more co-operation by each of the girls and their parents in the money-making project. The girls were asked to complete their lists of honors and bring them to the next meeting. The meeting was adjourned early on account of the bad weather.

Other groups meeting this week but not reported from were. the St. Cecilia Bluebirds, meeting at the St. Celicia church; the Makica group of fifth graders, meeting at the Church of Christ; the Odako group, meeting at the home of their guardian, Mrs. John Robinson of West Slope; the Chippewa group of Reedville meeting at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Jennie Becker, and the fourth grade Bluebirds of the Beaverton grade school, meeting at the grade school cafeteria.
