Co. Clerk Names
Voter Registrar
For E. Beaverton

County Clerk W. A. Tupper was in Beaverton last of the week arranging for another registrar at Beaverton. Mr. C. J. Beach at Beach's Market in Beaverton has been appointed to register citizens in East Beaverton precinct No. 66 and other precincts in Washington county. This was necessary to expedite registration for the May primary.

Eastern Washington county has been growing in population at a rapid pace. If you are not registered—better register today and avoid the rush later.

In West Beaverton precinct No. 65, George Thying is registering prospective voters. You must be registered to vote at the May primary.

Grove's Gleemen
Will Appear In School Concert

The Forest Grove Gleemen, nonprofit male chorus, will open its spring concert season next Wednesday night, March 10, appearing in the Tigard high school auditorium. The concert, proceeds of which will go to buy band and majorette uniforms for the Tigard high school band, is to start at 8:00 o'clock.

A program of familiar music, including several Negro spirituals, has been arranged, according to Director B. Ellsworth Harris. Among numbers on the program are: "Wiffenpoof Song," "Gospel Train," "The Lost Chord," "Wheel of the Wagon's Broken," "Religion is a Fortune," "My Heart is a Silent Violin," "Galway Piper" and "Goodnight, Goodnight, Beloved." The program, in three parts, will last about an hour and a half.

Possible added attraction to the concert will be the appearance of the Four Flats quartet of Pacific

Lodges Schedule
Joint Cakewalk
Huber March 12

Odd Fellows of Lodge No. 252 and Beaverton Rebekahs have scheduled a joint cakewalk at Huber hall, March 12, 8:30 p. m., with a full evening's entertainment included with the special event.

Not to be entirely confused with traditional cakewalks where grotesquely masqueraded celebrants march in competition, the I. O. O. F. specialty will deal with the distribution of 100 cakes with coffee available for their immediate consumption.

Program will include tap dancing, pinocle, beano and a special door prize of Revere ware.

All are welcome to attend.

FOR GOOD SAILORS

All the good little sailors of World War II may rejoice in receipt of good conduct medals which the navy is now getting around to deliver to eligible swab-by-veterans.

Any naval veteran who had no mark in conduct below 3.0 and an average of 3.8 as well as a final average of not less than 3.5 in rating proficiency should make application to the Chief of Naval Personnel, Attention Pers-10, Navy Department, Washington 25, D. C., stating name, service number, rate and dates of enlisting and discharge, to receive the official reward for their behavior.

college. Recently the Four Flats won the second annual All-Northwest Barber Shop Ballad contest, sponsored by the Gleemen.

The concert is being sponsored by the Tigard high school band. Other concerts of the Gleemen this spring are at Yamhill, Sheridan, Seapooose, Albany, Hillsboro, Kelso, Forest Grove, the district Rotary convention and the International convention of Federated Women's clubs in Portland the latter part of May.
