

man with a fast line

Your telephone lineman is a rugged, skillful specialist. He fights ice, wind, fire, flood. Sometimes when savage storms send telephone poles tumbling in a tangle of wood and wires, the lineman's job seems almost hopeless. But somehow his expert hands put them right again with incredible speed. Because of the lineman's skill, service interruptions are few and far between—and we're able to bring service to more and more people and improved service for everyone.

CARDS ON THURS.

The card party held in the Masonic Temple Thursday afternoon was a very successful party, there being twenty tables of bridge. Pinochle and 500.

TICKER CHECKUP

Mack Mayfield, gravel man from Cedar Mill, recently entered Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, for a checkup of a heart condition.

MOTHERS QUILT

The Westdale Mothers' club held a regular meeting Wednesday evening, March 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Leona Eckel. Members started cutting and joining blocks for quilt tops for benefit of patients at Fairview Home in Salem. Because of their extreme need for usable, washable garments, a special effort is being exerted to gather clothes promptly.

Following business, Mrs. Marie Adams led discussion of Lesson IV entitled "Emotional Health in Adolescence" from the Dickerson Home Study Course of Social Hygiene Guidance.

Mrs. Eckel served her guests generous servings of delightful lemon chiffon pie and coffee.

HOUSE NUMBERING

Numbering of houses according to Portland streets and numbers is progressing nicely according to Mr. W. Showalter, a free lance agent from Garden Home who has been authorized to take the work over. Route No. 5 including Cornell and Barnes Roads and cross roads are being numbered. He states that before long the post office will notify those concerned to change their addresses prior to inaugurating the new city mounted carrier service.
