LEGION PARTY

On Tuesday, March 9, at the home of Mrs. Marian Fuller at Aloha a Stanley party was held for members and friends of the American Legion auxiliary of Beaverton. A pot luck luncheon followed.

The proceeds went to the American Legion auxiliary to help furnish the new Legion hall.

GENERAL MEETING

The general meeting of the WSCS will have as their guest speaker Mrs. Ray Miller of Forest Grove, who is the district president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

On March 24 at church a pot luck luncheon will be held at 12 sharp. Each lady is expected to bring a guest.

WELCOME NEIGHBORS!

Among the welcome neighbors moving from Portland into Beaverton are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Cisco. They have moved into a new home at 37 S. E. 12th.

LATCHSTRING OUT!

A western tradition of leaving the latchstring out that passerby might come in for shelter, in time of emergency, holds no more charms for the Myron McCamley family in West Cedar Hills, on Walker road.

Taking a recent trip to Hood River, the McCamleys felt it quite sacrilegious to carefully lock all doors and bolt all windows. Such would defame and slander the traditional honesty of the Golden West.

Upon their return, however, signs of unexpected visitors was further emphasized by the loss of some "egg money" and one of their youngster's wallets containing $12.

From now on, it will take a real safe cracker to blast his illegal way into the McCamley home.

VOCAL RECITAL

Mrs. Samuel F. Owen, vocal teacher, will present Carol Sheeley. Beaverton in a musical recital to be held Sunday, March 21, in her home at Oswego, at 4 p. m.

Assisting will be Adair Taylor, dramatic soprano of Portland with Theresa Truchot as accompanist.

FIRE New Call Letters; Apr. 2 Broadcast Time

Rumor has it that an amateur, (very) broadcasting company is coming to Beaverton. Reliable information says that they will give their first and likely last performance at eight p. m. on Friday, April 2nd. Information is rather vague at present, but we heard that it is the B. C. C. broadcasting company using the call letters FIRE. Does that suggest anything, folks? Could the newly installed furnace in one of our larger buildings have anything to do with it? If all we hear about the program is true, it promises to be a riotous evening. We'll have more information for you next week, but in the meantime, remember the date — FRIDAY, APRIL 2 at 8 p. m.

BONNY SLOPE NEWS

HAM DINNER

A delicious baked ham dinner with all the fixings will be served at the Bonny Slope community club house on March 20 from 6:00 to 8:30 p. m. Bring your family and friends and enjoy the evening.

P. T. A. RUMMAGE

The last meeting of the PTA was held at the schoolhouse. Plans for a rummage sale were made. The rummage sale has since been given making a net gain of about fifty dollars.

The PTA wishes to thank all the people that donated and participated in the sale.

The next meeting will be held on March 19 at the Bonny Slope schoolhouse. Entertainment will be supplied by the Brownie scouts. Everyone is invited.

BOY SCOUTS TROOP 281

The court of honor was held at the Beaverton grade school on Feb. 19 and troop 281 won the blue ribbon for the second consecutive time.

The Boy Scouts need a new scoutmaster as Mr. Robbins has moved to Portland. The boys gave a going away party for him and his son. A lunch was served.

Troop 281 is planning a project to make some money, that they need badly. Everyone is invited to help them.

CLUB ENTERTAINED

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Snyder had 14 members of the Leedy grange card club at their home and entertained them with cards and refreshments.

HOME AGAIN

Mrs. W. J. Polette of Rainier road is home from the Emanuel hospital where she had undergone an operation. Glad to hear she is getting along fine.

AWAITING DISCHARGE

Pfc. Keith D. Coon is in Pittsburg, California, where he is waiting to be discharged from the army.

Odd Fellows And Rebekahs Sponsor Successful Night

An old-fashion cake walk and entertainment at Huber hall near Aloha, sponsored by Beaverton Odd Fellow Lodge No. 202 and Beaverton Rebekah Lodge No. 248, was held on March 12. Forty-two cakes were furnished by the Rebekahs.

Besides the cake walk, an entertainment was rendered by the Faye Broadwell Dancing School of Portland, whose dancing class in the IOOF hall in Beaverton, has developed some very fine talent among its pupils. Among those who took part in the entertainment were Ina and Marilyn Severson, Joyce Peterson, Lorie Johnson, Patty and Carolyn Krutinger of Portland and Karon and Dona Donne, Marilyn Daly, Sandra Wells, Janice Henderson, Diane Smith, Carol VanWinkle, Caroline Redding and Leland Robertson of Beaverton.

There was a skit of "When Pa and Ma Come to Town"; baton twirling, tumbling, tap dancing and a demonstration of a popular young man about town.

After the cake walk and cake sale, several square dances were enjoyed to the music of Mr. Heard and Mr. Erickson on the violin, accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Dashney, Mrs. Maly and Raymond Heard and Jack Wilkins on the snare drum.

Last but not least, several valuable door prizes were awarded to those who held the lucky tickets. The two lodges wish to thank all those who took part in any way and special thanks to the Broadwell Dancing School.
