Easter Pageants And Program For Nazarene Church

Easter Sunday will be observed in the local Church of the Nazarene through varied means this year. A departure from former years will be noted in the beginning time 10:15 a. m.

The morning service and Sunday school will be in the nature of a combined service. The children will present their program by way of recitation, exercise and song. Appropriate Easter music will also form a part in this portion of the service.

Following the program by the children the pastor of the local congregation will bring the Easter message, retelling the wonderful story of the Glorious Resurrection of the Lord Jesus. His subject will be "The Triumph of the Resurrection."

To climax this Easter Sunday, two colorful and scriptural pageants will be presented by 23 young people of the church at 7:30 p. m. "They Who Passed By" reviews the reactions of those who had witnessed the crucifixion. "The Redeemer Liveth," beautifully depicts the response to the wonderful truth that Christ actually does live.

A cordial invitation is extended Beaverton and vicinity to attend these services this Easter Sunday.

Beaverton Chorus Presents Cantata Easter Evening

The Beaverton community chorus will present the Easter cantata "Easteride" by Protherve at the Bethel Congregational church at 8:00 p. m. Easter Sunday, March 28.

Cantata soloists will be as follows: Soprano, Mrs. Ruth Zimbrick; alto, Mrs. Barbara Jane Barnes; tenor, Mr. Harris Hansen; baritone, Mr. Harry Carlson; bass, Mr. Paul Knepp.

The selection Easteride is one of the most complete cantatas of the Easter commemoration, starting with the Passion, progressing through the March to Calvary, the Rolling away of the Stone by the Angels and the final victory of Christ over death in his being raised from the Dead.

The place: Bethel Congregational church, corner 6th and Watson. The time: 8:00 p. m. on March 28, Easter Sunday evening.

Canyon Baptists Dedicate Gift Of Communion Cups

Easter services of the Canyon road Baptist church will begin with a short program of recitations by the children of the Sunday school at 10:45 a. m., merging into the worship service at 11 a. m. Special Easter music, including "The Risen King," by B. D. Ackley, will be provided by the mixed quartette. Mrs. Oscar Kruger will sing, "The Resurrection Morn," by Rodney, and Mrs. Edwin Buddeau will sing "When God is Near," by A. H. Ackley. The pastor, Rev. Russell B. Thomas, will preach on "The Message of the Resurrection."

A 35-cup communion service was presented to this church by the group of seven who were the first to be baptized into its membership. The set was dedicated at the last Lord's Supper service.

Donors were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Highbe, Oscar Kruger, Mrs. Donna Morford, Mrs. Florence Bowman, Mrs. Jess Smith and Arthur W. Carlson.

Services are held by the Baptist church every Sunday in the Odd Fellows hall of Beaverton, 53 N. Broadway, at 11 a. m. with Sunday school at 9:45.

Lutheran Plan Festival Service

The Sunday school will present an Easter program at 9:45 a. m. Parents and friends are invited.

The festival service for congregation and community will be held at 11 a. m. The Rev. Werner Fritz, pastor, will preach on the subject: Easter's Message for Today.

Dr. Robert Rittel will sing "The Holy City" accompanied by Gale Enger, church pianist. St. Matthew's church is located on Canyon road between Beaverton and West Slope.
