Campfire Girls Of Area Observe Birthday Week

Climaxing the activities of National Campfire Birthday week, the Campfire Girls of the Beaverton area held their annual Mother-Daughter banquet on Thursday evening, March 18, at the Beaverton grade school cafeteria. The program opened with the singing of the Blessing with Phyllis Palmrose aided by the high school Campfire group leading.

The girls then introduced their mothers. There were about 120 mothers and daughters in attendance. A potluck dinner was served by Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Grandy, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Strayer, Mrs. N. Enger, Mrs. Byrd, Mrs. Boge, Mrs. Gunnestrup and Mrs. Robinson.

After dinner mothers and daughters joined in singing an original song for Campfire girls, to the tune of "Peg 'O My Heart." The girls continued with several songs, some in very beautiful harmony, while the tables were being cleared.

Mrs. Donald Jenkins, the mistress of ceremonies for the evening, introduced Mrs. John Robinson, president of the Beaverton area council of Campfire, who told of the need of funds for handicraft for the Campfire groups, and asked for a birthday collection for this purpose.

Mrs. Jenkins introduced the Wakentua group of Campfire girls from the McKay district, who sang the "Walking Song." Mrs. Ferris is guardian of this group. The Chippewa group from Reedville sang "Redwing." Miss Betty Becker, daughter of Mrs. Jennie Becker, guardian of this group, gave a very amusing reading called "The Modern Mother."

The Makika group, with Mrs. Donald Jenkins and Mrs. Wilbert Johannsmeyer as leaders, sang and acted out "The Easter Parade." The girls carried hatboxes, from which they took hats of original design. After the song, the hats were judged by the audience. Miss Geraldine Reavis, who wore a crepe paper version of a birthday cake won the prize. Her hat was a small white cake circled with blue candles, with a lighted campfire in the center, and happy birthday decorating the sides of the cake, depicting the birthday of Campfire. Miss Joyce Woodford, with an inverted Easter basket decorated with crepe paper, flowers and a nest of Easter eggs on top; and Miss Patty Huddleston, with a crepe paper bonnet, decorated with big crepe paper posies on the brim, were runners-up.

Mrs. Jenkins introduced the Odako group who did a skit called "Drip, Drip, Drip." Caroline Hulings presented a tap dance. Mrs. John Robinson is the guardian for this group.

The high school Horizon club, the B-Beaverettes, gave a hilarious version of "Manana." Mrs. J. V. Palmrose is their leader. The Tando group sang their version of "She'll Be Coming Around the Mountain", and "The Camp Fire Law" in which all the Campfire girls joined.

Mrs. McCue, guardian of the Tando group, and chairman of the Guardian's association, thanked everyone for their help and co-operation in making this dinner a nice affair. Special thanks went to the guardians who decorated the tables and to Mrs. Phillip Mead and Mrs. C. L. Drew who furnished the camellias for the tables. Also to the girls who made the little Indian girl favors, and to the Bluebird mothers who helped in the kitchen.

BLUEBIRD NEST

The second and third grade Bluebirds met in the grade school cafeteria for their regular meeting on Thursday, March 18. The girls made placard favors for the mother-daughter banquet on Friday, March 19, during the meeting. After completing the favors everyone practiced songs as part of the banquet program.

The Tando group met on the afternoons of March 17 and 18 in order to get an extra practice in on the songs they sang on the program for the Campfire banquet.

Bluebirds Give Program, Mother Daughter Banquet

The Bluebird Mother-Daughter banquet, celebrating National Campfire Birthday week, was held in the grade school cafeteria on Friday evening, March 19, at 6:30 p. m. with approximately one hundred mothers and daughters in attendance. The evening began with the presentation of colors by Judy Byrd, the flag salute, led by Mrs. Glen Ely, toastmaster, and singing of America.

After a potluck dinner, Mrs. Ely presented the Bluebird leaders, Mrs. Cavens, Mrs. Grandy, Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Gregory of Beaverton and Mrs. Strayer of McKay school, with beautiful corsages made and given by Mrs. Drew of Ilex nursery. A special welcome was extended McKay Bluebirds and mothers.

Mrs. Anderson led a short period of group singing while the tables were being cleared. At the end of a much appreciated story of Mrs. Ely, each Bluebird introduced herself and her mother. An interesting program presented by the girls for their mothers followed.

McKay Bluebirds were first with two dances, trained and accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. Payne. Beaverton second and third graders were next, singing and acting a group of songs.

Three Bluebirds then told of activities at camp last summer: Things we made, by Audrey Grandy; the cabins and camp, Mary Lee Cavens; fun at camp, Glenny Ely. Mrs. John Robinson explained the need for a birthday collection.

While the birthday box was being passed, Mrs. Ely thanked the women in the kitchen, Mrs. A. Enger, Mrs. Ferris, Mrs. Sanborn, Mrs. McCue, Mrs. Palmrose, Mrs. Durdal, Mrs. Cowie, and Mrs. Robinson for their fine job of serving the dinner. Mrs. Cavens' fourth grade Bluebirds presented two clever dance numbers.

To conclude the evening's festivities, Happy Birthday Campfire and Sing Your Way Home were sung by the Bluebirds and their mothers.

Paul W. Boyd

Funeral services were held Thursday at 1:30 p. m., March 25, at Riverview Abbey for the late Paul Wallace Boyd, Bethany, Oregon. Mr. Boyd was born September 1, 1899, in Kearney, Nebraska. Mr. Boyd had suffered poor health for some time.

Surviving relatives include his widow Katie Irene Boyd and six children, LeRoy, Dolores, Wesley, Jerry, Rose, Linda; a sister, Mrs. Ethel Burton, Redlands, Calif., a brother, Ford Boyd, Salem. Arrangements for interment will be handled by Pegg's mortuary, Beaverton.

Elder Engstrom, SDA, Portland, will officiate at the rites.
