BUILDING RESUMES

Building activity is increasing on Denny road with the Hostes family resuming work on the home that was started last fall and a duplex building being erected by the O. Burkes, which is being constructed of pumice blocks. There will be four rooms and bath in each apartment.

DRIVE TO COAST

Mr. and Mrs. V. L. Beach drove to the coast on business last week.

CONGRATS FOR THEA

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Chester Robinson, whose daughter Thea, was born May 16, at Wilcox Memorial hospital. Thea, the third child of the Robinsons, weighed seven pounds, fifteen ounces.

ONE WAY OUT

One farmer out this way says that he thinks it might be a good idea to raise ducks this year, can't do anything else in this rainy season.

WHITFORD NURSERY

The Valley View Nursery at Whitford, which opened for business last month, is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Roy K. Smith of Garden Home. The shop has a small greenhouse addition in which bedding plants are being grown. They also handle shrubs and a complete line of sprays. The Smiths plan to landscape the land soon.

Rapid expansion of the district around Whitford was the factor that caused them to select their present site.

INTERLUDE IN B. C.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brinsley of Sorrento road returned last week from Victoria, B. C. where they visited relatives and friends. The trip was particularly interesting as the governor-general of Canada was there on an annual inspection trip.

Mr. Brinsley, who served in the British navy during the war, enjoyed a reunion with naval friends. During the visit they stayed at the Empress hotel.

Mrs. Brinsley reports that the new ferry boat the Chinook is quite luxurious.

VISIT EX-RESIDENTS

Mr. and Mrs. George Davis visited at the C. T. West home in Skamokawa this week. The Wests were former residents of this area.

FAMILY AND FRIENDS

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fanno were Mr. and Mrs. Asa Fanno and Carl Fanno of Chico, Calif. Asa Fanno, a manufacturer of saws, drove north on business while the other members of the party visited relatives here and in Portland.

In honor of the guests, Mrs. A. R. Fanno of Portland entertained the following persons at luncheon, Mrs. Reva Brown, Mrs. Ruby Boyd, Mrs. George Blasser and Mrs. Frank Fanno.

McKay PTA Name New Officers Of Enlarging Group

The McKay PTA held their regular meeting on Friday, May 14, at which time officers for the following year were elected and installed, with E. F. Rabe, a past president of the PTA, conducting the ceremony. The new officers are president, Mrs. Dudley Scott; first vice president, James Farmer; second vice president, Robert Payne; secretary, Mrs. E. F. Rabe; treasurer, Mrs. L. V. Lukas.

The rhythm band presented a number "Amarilla," under direction of Mrs. Vose, and Miss Kathleen Ackerman presented a piano solo.

A fashion show was presented by the 4-H Zippers, the McKay sewing club. The girls modeled dresses completed as part of their project, while their leader Mrs. Dudley Scott, pointed out interesting details of the garments.

Miss Newton, assistant county agent, presented achievement pins to the members of the 4-H Dairy and Sewing clubs. Several of the members received two and three year pins. Patricia Schlaht received a pin for five years of participation in 4-H work.

Mrs. Scott Horney, retiring president of the PTA, was presented with an electric toaster by the PTA to show their appreciation of her excellent leadership during the past year.

Upon conclusion of the program refreshments were served in the cafeteria.

There has been increased attendance and interest at each meeting, denoting an active organization.

M'Kay Graduates Thursday, May 13 Fetes 10 Students

Graduation exercises were held for ten students of the McKay school on Thursday, May 13, with a capacity audience attending.

The entire program was presented by the students and consisted of an address of welcome by Chas. Ward, a piano duet by Sharon Tippery and Viola Fanno, a song "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," sung by Lucille Wright and Patricia Schlaht.

The class song was sung by the members of the graduating class. Each member spoke a few appropriate words with a central theme of "self improvement".

A gift was presented to Mr. Jackman, the school principal, by the graduating class, and corsages were presented to each of the following teachers: Mrs. Walters, Mrs. Vose and Miss Wiedman.

Mr. Rabe, chairman of the school board, presented the diplomas, which completed the program.

The members of the graduating class are as follows: Patricia Schlaht, Carol Colter, Sharon Tippery, Lucille Wright, Lavella DeHaan, Viola Fanno, Gabriella Ghiglietti, Charles Ward, Elwood Gilbert and Fred Monohon.

FIRE WITH SMOKE

The fire which destroyed the smokehouse of the R. L. Sears family last week consumed a goodly amount of meat which was being cured.

Mr. Sears suffered painful burns on his right hand, while fighting the fire which luckily was confined to the one building.

510 N. Commercial Street, Salem, Oregon

Some Of Doug McKay's Constructive Proposals

1. Reduce State income taxes by restoring the higher exemptions in effect prior to the 1947 legislative session.
2. Repeat the state withholding tax.
3. Amend the state income tax to provide deductions for unusual medical expenses and for moderate life insurance premiums up to $250.00 a yr.
4. Profits from the liquor commission should go into the state's general fund.
5. Reaffirm respect for the security of public trust funds to preserve the heritage of public lands that help sustain our educational system.
6. Develop Oregon's post-war highways on a pay-as-you-go basis and as rapidly as possible.
7. Coordinate the various state agencies working for the conservation of natural resources and wildlife.
8. Plan Oregon's industrial development without seasonal unemployment, slums, stream pollution or poverty and vice.
