During the run of the derby, Mrs. Martyn caught three salmon weighing in at a total of approximately 40 pounds.

Campfire Girls Look To Summer Vacation Outings

With school being out this week, and vacation coming up, summer camp looms in the minds of Camp Fire girls. Registration this year will be held at the Beaverton city hall from 9:00 to 12:00 a. m. on May 24. Mrs. Everett Bowers will be in charge.

Session dates for camp are: July 11 to July 17, Topsy-Turvy Land (Blue Birds); 2. July 18 to July 24, Magic of Oz, (Blue Birds); 3. July 25 to July 31, Pirates' Alley (Camp Fire Girls); 4. August 1 to August 14, Vagabonds (8th grade graduates and high school girls, three day camping trip).

The Washington county camp for Camp Fire girls is Camp Adah, located on the Gales Creek road, five miles from Forest Grove, Oregon. It occupies twelve acres on a beautiful wooded hillside, with opportunity for hiking, outdoor cooking, swimming, overnight camping. There are six cabins for the girls and their counselors, in addition to the main lodge, shower house and other buildings.

The camp holds 42 girls, who are under the supervision of a director and staff of trained counselors. A registered nurse is in constant communication with camp and a doctor is within call. The meals are well-balanced and nutritious, planned by a competent dietician.

This year's session holds much excitement and fun for the campers.
