Broke Up Funeral

A great crowd followed Jesus and His disciples to the city of Nain. There they met the townspeople, bringing out for burial the only son of a widowed mother. Jesus had pity on her and said WEEP NOT. Then He came close, reached out His hand and touched the bier with YOUNG MAN I COMMAND YOU TO ARISE. At this the dead man raised up and began to speak Jesus then gave him over to his mother.—Luke 7:11-18.

Jesus our Lord had only to speak and the dead lived for He was and is the Source and Author of all life. At His word, all who have ever lived shall come forth—Christ as their own Lord and Saviour, to the resurrection of life and they who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment. See John 3:36.

They who have believed? They obey God and believe in Christ as the Eternal Son who died for them. At that God counts their sins off and his own righteousness on. See 2nd Corinthians 5:21. Two resurrections. The saved to Glory. The lost to Judgment. Which for you?
