DAY SCHOOL OPENING

Gabel Country day school will open on Monday, September 13. The school has been a bee-hive of activity this summer with the work of several improvements, including the addition of a new girls' lavatory and a remodeling of the nursery school apartment. The complete staff will be announced later.

Gabel has a few openings available for registrations in the pre-school and elementary department, although several classes are closed.

LIBRARIAN VISITS

Wanda Brockman of Seattle is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude J. Brockman, of McChesney road for the month of August.

Miss Brockman, who is a librarian in the Seattle public library, is spending this weekend at the Oregon beaches.

HOUSE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Batt (Jane Butterfield) of Caldwell, Idaho, spent last weekend as guests of Dr. and Mrs. George H. Butterfield.

On Sunday the Butterfields were hosts at a family picnic with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Butterfield, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Macy Hyde and Charles Brovan of San Francisco as guests.

WELCOME 3RD DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lilles of Newton Place in Raleigh Hills have added a third daughter to their family, little Jane Lilles who was born at Emanuel hospital on July 23 and weighed six pounds five ounces.

Amaryllis and Penny Jr., Lilles returned Monday night from a two weeks' stay at the Girl Scout camp in Washington.

RETURN FROM PENN.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Wetterborg are driving home from Wilkes Barre, Penn., where they have been visiting Mrs. Wetterborg's parents.

The Wetterborgs and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wait drove as far as St. Louis by way of Salt Lake City and Denver. The Waits are visiting their parents in St. Louis and will make their return trip with the Wetterborgs.

Both young couples live at Adair village and are students at Oregon State college. They left on their trip July 24 and will be back in Portland on August 21.

IN CALIFORNIA SUN

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Walters of Brentwood avenue returned Monday from a ten day trip to Los Angeles. They drove to San Francisco on the way down and spent time there. In Los Angeles they enjoyed the beach at Santa Monica and picked up enviable "tans." Martha Walters returned Wednesday from a two weeks' camping trip to Spirit Lake, Wn., at the Portland senior Girl Scout camp.

HAIR STYLIST

Helen Draper, Beaverton, who formerly worked at the Shangri-La Beauty Salon in Portland, is a new hair stylist at the Canyon Beauty Studio in West Slope.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The Valley Community church, 7900 S. W. Brentwood ave., will hold its annual Sunday school picnic on the grounds at Gabel school next Saturday from 3:30 to 8:30. Members and friends are cordially invited.

Potluck dinner at 6:00. Races and games with prizes for the winners. A Vesper service at 8:15 will close the day.

Howard M. Foster, superintendent of the Sunday school, will be in charge.

BEAVERTON NEWS

NEAR BALD PEAK

J. M. Putman on Huber avenue and his sister who has been with him since July 1, Mrs. Myrta Myers of Roseberg, Ore., spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tatman near Bald Peak. They also went up far enough to take in the beautiful view of surrounding country. They also visited another friend, Mrs. Lena Myers, Mrs. Myrta Myers had not seen the Tatmans for 47 years so they had a wonderful time talking over their school days together. They also had a delicious dinner.

Fiddle Contest

All old-time fiddlers should start sharpening up their talents, with announcement from Salem that Disabled American Veterans there are sponsoring the Northwest Fiddlers' Championship contest October 28 and 29.

Whether of the tobacco-chewing or foot-thumping variety, or both, all old-time-style players who can saw a lively tune out of a violin are invited to participate. Finals, of course, are on the second night.

Featured on the program will be a quadrille and old-time waltz contest, under the outstanding show chairmanship of Mrs. Ollie Grove, Grants Pass, who is becoming increasingly well-known for her work.

Judges will be chosen from outside Salem and good prizes as well as a real good time is the promise.

Proceeds will go toward the Disabled Vet's Living Memorial building, now under construction.

Any interested viol. oops! fiddlers desiring further information are asked to write Verne L. Ostrander, chairman, at Salem.

The average American consumes 187.4 quarts of milk in a year.
