NEWEST JEWELER

Newest jeweler in Beaverton is Ray W. Jones, of Portland, who recently purchased the firm of the Beaverton Jeweler, formerly operated by Claud Shaw.

Mr. Jones intends to continue the good will and business policies of his predecessor and will retain the firm name. Before coming to Beaverton, he was head watchmaker for Butterfield Brothers, in Portland, having been in this business for some 37 years.

WITH THE THREE "D'S"

Visiting a few days at the Beaverton home of Mr. and Mrs. Mitz Alexander are his brother, Sol and his children "the three D's in the family", Donald, Dorothy and David Alexander, of Long Beach, California.

The visiting Mr. Alexander is in the production and refining end of the oil business.

MASTER PLUMBERS

Sixty-two master plumbers and members of the ladies' auxiliary held a special meeting at the Alt Heidelberg Inn, Beaverton, on Wednesday, August 4, reports Ray Clearwater, member of the association.

This was the first time the plumber group had honored Beaverton with a meeting and many tours of the community were in order, at the conclusion of the dinner and following business.

All local members of the master plumbers were also in attendance, reports Clearwater.

REALLY SURPRISED

Really surprised on the occasion of her birthday, Mrs. Rex McBride, Beaverton, was honor-guest at a surprise party arranged at the home of Mrs. Wally Kain, 1110 N. E. Canyon road, August 5.

Present to share in the festivities, with ice cream and birthday cake, were Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. McBride and son Eldon, Lon Farlow, Miss Joanna Thomason and Mr. and Mrs. Kain.

GUESTS FROM WASH.
