BEAVERTON

RETURNS HOME

Miss Evaun Jensen who has spent the summer in San Diego, Calif., returned to her home in Beaverton Monday.

FOURTH BIRTHDAY

Mrs. Donald R. Mauch entertained a group of children with a party, at her home on 3rd and Pacific street Monday afternoon celebrating the fourth birthday anniversary of their son Roger Donald. Those present were, Robert, Marietta and Anne Marie Rasmussen, Arlen Snyder, Nancy and Kenneth Holland, Rosemary Mauch and Roger. Games were played, after which a lovely birthday cake and ice cream were served. Little Roger received a number of interesting gifts.

WEEK-ENDER

George McKercher spent the weekend at the home of his mother in Beaverton and with Portland friends.

TO ACME LODGE

Mrs. Jewel Lorentzen, Mrs. Faye Saunders, Mrs. Jay Frost, Mrs. Mabel Gilmore and Mrs. Ida Harris, all of Beaverton Rebekah Lodge attended Acme Rebekah Lodge in Portland Saturday evening. The President of the Rebekah Assembly, Christine Smith of Lebanon, paid her official visit at this meeting.

AFTER 11,000 MILES

Many are the tales that Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carlson, Farmington Road, can tell, after completing a six week's trip covering over 11,000 miles. They returned last Saturday.

Points of special interest included a day at the Railroad Fair in Chicago, where they saw exhibits of locomotives dating way back when. An impressive affair, the show tells a comprehensive story of the railroad industry.

Stops were made in New York City, at the Niagara Falls Centennial, in southern Florida, and of course, Washington, D. C.

While at the nation's capitol, the Carlsons sat through sessions of both houses in Congress.

Co. Odd Fellows Hold Outing at Resort on River

The picnic on the Tualatin river August 8th was a big success. The day was ideal and the grounds fine for such an affair. Around 300 attended.

The Rebekahs had well filled baskets and the Odd Fellows responded with appetites to match. With free ice cream for the kiddies, everyone was satisfied.

The after dinner speakers were Edward Bowman, Graham Young, Henry Young, W. Bloom and Richard Scott.

Brother Henry Young spoke at length on Odd Fellowship.

Sports program included a horse shoe game, boating, swimming and dancing. Base ball was played and the score was high on both sides.

On Monday evening Beaverton I.O.O.F. lodge met in regular session and conferred the third degree on two brothers.

Margaret Pyron

Services for Mrs. Margaret Elizabeth Pyron, 54, Route 3, Beaverton, who passed away August 12 in a Portland hospital after extended illness, were held on Saturday, August 14, 2 p.m., from the Pegg Mortuary chapel, Beaverton. Reverend Albert King officiated. Vault interment was in Crescent Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Pyron was born in Portland, January 27, 1894 and she had lived on Route 3, Beaverton, for the past six years.

She is survived by her husband, Charles B. Pyron, Beaverton; sons John Davis, U. S. Air Force and Chester Davis, Portland; stepson, Russell C. Pyron, Portland; brothers and sisters: Katherine Ogyilbee and Ruth Gill of Vancouver, Washington, Nettie Carlson, Aberdeen, Andrew Tierney, Portland and Boyce Tierney, Hillsboro and two grand children.

Heasley, Bride. Take Residence After Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Heasley, who were wed in a colorful ceremony at the Piedmont Presbyterian church, July 16, have taken residence in Portland, after an extended honeymoon trip. The bride is the former Marjorie Phillips, of Cedar Mill.

After the wedding, the couple embarked on a trip that took them into Northern California, all through Oregon and into the southern part of Oregon.

DEATH IN SALEM

Mrs. Art Young of Nancy Carol Coffee Shop received word Monday that her grandmother had died of a stroke at the home of her daughter Mrs. Bert Wittenburg in Salem.

She flew from Germany a few months ago. She had died at the age of 83 after an illness of six weeks. The coffee shop will be closed until after the funeral.
