Mr. Olds, who has been ill with heart trouble for some time, was able to be up and help in the celebration of the day.

The wishes expressed by neighbors and friends was for all good luck for the couple, with many more years of health and happiness for them.

Visitors Fly to Beaverton From Waterloo, Iowa

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd F. Nottger, of Waterloo, Iowa, were guests last week of Mrs. Nottger's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Howland, 9809 Beaverton Highway, leaving for home Sept. 17.

The Nottgers made the trip from Iowa in their own Cessna-140 plane, flying the northern route through Rapid City, S. Dak., Billings and Helena, Montana and Spokane to Beaverton, in approximately 18 hours flying time. Mr. West Aviation Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Nottger first became interested in flying when they bought a plane for their son. After he completed training and went into the army air corps, the plane was sitting around idle so Mr. Nottger decided to learn to fly it himself.

He now uses the plane in his business on lumber buying trips, as well as for pleasure, having gone on fishing trips into various states. Mrs. Nottger acts as navigator and occasionally takes over in the air.

The return trip to Iowa is being made through Pendleton, Boise, Potomato, Cheyenne and Omaha. Mr. and Mrs. Nottger expect to fly their Cessna to Florida and also New Mexico this winter.
