McKay - Whitford AT SCHOOL CAFETERIA
A new ventilating fan in good working order has been installed in the school cafeteria and the new store room is now in use.
Also a new table has been built to handle the increased number of children in the cafeteria.
R. W. Payne and J. F. Farmer did the necessary labor on these projects.
The generous donation of funds by the Progress business men last fall has made possible other needed improvements.

New Educational Methods Feature McKay PTA Oct. 8
McKay PTA will hold their regular meeting on Friday, Oct. 8, at 8 p. m. The theme for the evening will be new methods of education.
Faculty members will endeavor to interpret the work of the school to the parents and each teacher will answer questions on subjects pertaining to their particular grades, offering parents an opportunity of finding out how these new methods are applied and why.
There will be special music, games and refreshments.
All parents are cordially invited but please remember that this is a parent and teacher meeting, not a party for children. We are only too glad to see children accompany their parents but children unaccompanied are not invited.

Tourist Tells of Travel in Europe
The joys and sorrows of traveling in Europe were detailed at the North Willamette District Business and Professional Women's clubs' luncheon at Oswego on September 26. The speaker was Miss Fern Trull of Grants Pass, international relations chairman of the Oregon Federation B&PWC who had just returned from a summer in Europe.
She found, in France, frugal French peasants tilling every inch of soil. Many of the buildings, still camouflaged, have been used by American soldiers as rest homes. Part of the U. S. fleet, including the Missouri and several destroyers were anchored along the coast during her stay at Nice. Miss Trull visited many B and PW clubs while abroad.
Round table discussions were the order of business for the early morning session while the latter part of the morning was given over to a report of the recent convention at Fort Worth by Mrs. Virginia Moore of Hillsboro and Mrs. Maude Thames Martin, president of the Oswego-Lake Grove club.
Special guests were Mrs. Carmelite Weddle, president of Salem, Mrs. Charlene Edwards first vice-president of Philomath, Dr. Eleanor Gutman health and safety director of Coquille and Mrs. Zepha Pierson, membership chairman of Grants Pass.
The Beaverton club was represented by Mrs. Hildah Highbe, president, Mrs. Marjory Soholm, vice-president Mrs. Alice Carlson, treasurer, Mrs. Cora Clearwater, director, Mrs. Jennie Cline and Mrs. Auga Gosselin.

Hi School Press Meets at U. of O. Nov. 5th and 6th
Plans for the 22nd annual Oregon High School Press conference were announced this week by the University of Oregon school of journalism, sponsors of the conference, November 5 and 6 are the dates scheduled for the meetings of the prep newspaper workers.
Invitations for the two-day affair will be mailed to delegates from every high school in the state within the week, according to Warren C. Price, associate professor of journalism, who is in charge of arrangements. The conference this year has been scheduled for November, a month earlier than usual, so that high school journalists will be better able to make full use of new techniques learned at the conference, Mr. Price said. The earlier dates do not conflict with examination schedules at the university, he pointed out.
No definite program is announced at this time but those in charge are planning additional forums and a wider range of subjects for the 1948 conference.
Assisting with arrangements are Gordon Sabine, assistant professor of journalism; Dr. Laurence R. Campbell, professor of journalism; and Carl C. Webb, assistant professor of journalism and secretary-manager of the Oregon Newspaper Publishers association.

Pat on the Back
Truly a pat on the back is the letter recently sent to County Clerk of Washington County, W. A. Tupper, from the office of Earl T. Newbery, secretary of state, at Salem.
The communication deals with a notice for the November 2 election, a copy of which Tupper sent into the state office. David O'Hara, of the election division, wrote that the notice was an exceptional example, meeting all statutory requirements.
Furthermore, the notice is being copied for the benefit of those county clerks who might seek advice of the secretary of state's office as to the proper form for such purpose.
Which explains a deep, broad smile encountered nowadays in the Hillsboro office of Washington county's clerk.

St. Coll. Issues Spray Program
A new bulletin giving the spray program for the control of diseases and insect pests of peaches has just been published by Oregon State College, according to Wilbur W. Burkhardt, County Extension Agent.
The bulletin gives recommendations for the use of Phygon, a new material which may be used in place of Bordeaux for controlling peach blight and brown rot before the fruit has set. Spraying for the control of peach leaf curl should be done after January 1 using the 12-12-100 Bordeaux mixture.
Persons desiring this bulletin should request Circular of Information No. 435 at the county agent's office.

New Records at Pac. Int'l. Show Assured, Oct. 1-9
This year's Pacific International Livestock exposition in Portland, Oct. 1 to 9, promises to establish new records in all departments.
Highlight will be the first appearance in the United States since the war of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police drill team, a group of 35 men selected as the best horsemen from the entire force. All of them are on active duty, many of them patrolling regions beyond the Arctic circle. In their red and blue uniforms, they will execute complicated maneuvers to music at each of the 13 horse show performances.
Of top interest is the $126,955 in premiums and special prizes for which exhibitors will compete. Expositions president, Theodore B. Wilcox, announces that this total premium list is made possible by increased interest, despite heavy Vanport flood repairs which cost $62,500.
Outstanding livestock authorities have been commissioned, to judge the avalanche of entries coming from eight Western states and Canada. Blue bloods among cattle, sheep, swine and goats will be on display and poultry, rabbits and pigeons will vie for honors.
Occupying much of the limelight will be the 4-H and Future Farmers of America activities including such well-established features as the calf scramble and the dollar dinner.
At the nine evening horse shows and four matinees, high-stepping aristocrats of the horse world will share the tanbark with top hand cowboys and their bucking broncs.

Why Require Purchase Of a Bottle? LEGALIZE LIQUOR BY THE GLASS

Let's quit kidding ourselves! Is it sensible to encourage the purchase of unlimited quantities of liquor by-the-bottle and at the same time have it illegal to purchase even so much as one drink of liquor by-the-glass?

Yet that is the situation in Oregon today... a situation the Oregon Liquor Dispensing Licensing Act (314 x YES!) is designed to correct by making it legal to purchase liquor either by-the-bottle in state liquor stores, as at present, or by-the-glass in state-licensed and supervised establishments.

For several months now, our state liquor stores have been holding "bargain sales" announcing attractive reductions in prices and encouraging the public to buy more liquor by-the-bottle.

One commissioner stated recently that as a result of this "merchandising" state liquor inventories had been reduced by some $2 million.

Figures for the year 1947 show that in per capita liquor consumption Oregon, with its exclusively by-the-bottle system, consumed more per capita than seven of the nine states which offer the public the choice of bottle or glass.

State 1947 per capita liquor consumption

OREGON	1.63	- Bottle only
Vermont	1.60	- Bottle and glass
Wyoming	1.58	- " " "
Maine	1.48	- " " "
Michigan	1.25	- " " "
Idaho	1.18	- " " "
Ohio	1.12	- " " "
Pennsylvania	1.08	- " " "

Liquor by-the-glass, as well as by the bottle, was made available in our neighboring state of Idaho on July 1, 1947. Consumption declined immediately.

Idaho per capita liquor consumption:

1946 (bottle only)	1.23
1947 (bottle and glass)	1.18

Some people think that consumption will decrease if you make liquor hard to get. Actually, the harder a thing is to get, the harder people will try to get it. During the war, when liquor was scarce, did consumption decrease? No, it increased!

Here are the figures;
Decrease in Oregon Per Capita Liquor Consumption Since the War Years.

1945 - 1.77	1946 - 1.72	1947 - 1.62

Let's have common-sense liquor regulations.
