

IN HOSPITAL

Mr. Andrew Kennedy is ill in Providence Hospital in Portland.

BREAKS LEG

Mrs. Ruby Madden had the misfortune to break her leg. They had just moved to near Forest Grove. Mrs. Madden is treasurer of the Eastern Star.

PORTLAND VISIT

Mrs. Haley of Second and Washington Sts., Beaverton is in Portland visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Loall.

Fifteen members of the Beaverton Rebekah and Odd Fellows lodges attended the Washington County Three Links association meeting Saturday evening in Hillsboro. A program followed by dancing and a pot luck lunch was the diversion of the evening.

Everyone reported a good time and a good attendance. The next meeting will be held in Forest Grove in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin have sold their home on Menlo Drive and moved to Newberg where Mr. Martin has gone into business for himself. Mr. Martin at one time had a dry goods store where the Miller grocery store now is.

VISIT DAUGHTER

Mr. and Mrs. Shellenberger are in Klamath Falls visiting their daughter there. They also were at Gold Beach for a short time.

Regular meeting of the Beaverton Saddle club will be this Thursday, Oct. 14, 8 p. m. at the J. Strauss residence on Johnson road and Division street.

This will be an important meeting and members are urged to attend.

TO MT. HOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Dayton Peck drove to Mt. Hood Sunday.

FROM PASCO, WASH.

Rev. and Mrs. Francis Sturtevant of Pasco attended recent services in which the new minister Albert King of the Bethel Congregational Church was ordained. They also greeted old friends at Beaverton.

CHEERIO CLUB

Mrs. Leah Straley entertained the Cheerio Club last Thursday. It was their first meeting after the summer. Mrs. Florence Drorbaugh of Portland was a guest.
