WCSX XMAS PARTY

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church, Beaverton will hold its annual Christmas party at the church Wednesday, December 15 at 12:30 p.m. with a pot luck luncheon.

There will be a special Christmas program and the usual exchange of inexpensive gifts. Members and friends are cordially invited.

GUEST HOLIDAY CHEF

Mrs. Frank Pretzlaff of Kennedy Park has been entertaining her sister and bro-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scratton. The Scrattons returned to Julian, Calif. Monday after a three weeks visit. Mrs. Pretzlaff reports that they had a wonderful time.

Mr. Scratton who is a retired cook prepared many of the meals including a turkey dinner with all the trimmings.

TO FUNERAL SERVICE

Mrs. S. A. Fulton of Bonny Slope attended the funeral of her niece, Mrs. Edith Green in Grandview, Washington on November 26.

Mrs. Green was the sister of Mrs. Alice Artlip, formerly of Sherwood and Albert W. Hunt, Jr., a graduate of Sherwood eighth grade in 1945.

HAPPY AT HOME

Mr. James Simms is very happy to be home again after having a physical check up at the hospital.

AMAZING CASE

The case of Jennie Puckett, 2 years old, of Sheridan, Ore., granddaughter of Mrs. Hazel B. Puckett of Beaverton, is called little short of amazing.

The little girl, for 2 weeks, refused to eat and finally alarmed her parents, who rushed her to the Doernbecker hospital in Portland, last Sunday. Here, examination showed she had been suffering from a ruptured appendix.

Because the inflammation had already spread, the doctors advised against an operation. A drain tube has been inserted and her appendix will be given six weeks or two months to sufficiently heal and allow an appendectomy.

The only girl in four children of her family, little Jennie, at last reports, was said to be holding her own.

BRIDAL SHOWER

Sixteen girl friends of Mrs. Donn Easton, formerly Donna Sluyter, honored the young matron, Saturday, November 20, with a miscellaneous bridal shower at the home of Mrs. R. L. Blank, on S. W. 6th Street, Beaverton.

Present were Dorothy Carr, Janice Osfield, Mary Jane Taggart, Norma Black, Dolores Carlson, Joan Peterson, Sylvia Fricke, Nancy Shoffner, Donna Krieske, Dorcen Dolly, Thelma Tardy, Rosemary Sledge, George Sloum, Beverly Nichol and Sally Stearns.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Blank and her daughter, Beverly.

Mrs. Bauer

Josephine Myrtle Bauer, passed away Tuesday at her home west of Cedar Mill, Nov. 30, following a short illness.

She was born at Scappoose in 1897. On Dec. 1, 1921 she was married to Clifford Bauer at the home of his parents near Cedar Mill.

An outstanding record as a church member is credited to her. She was a charter member and Deaconess of Tabernacle Church of Seventh Day Adventist, having attended church regularly missing not more than 6 sabbaths in 27 years.

She has been well known in the vicinity in which she has lived for the past 27 years.

Survivors are her husband, Clifford; a daughter, Irene; sisters, Mrs. Effie Grant of Linnton, Mrs. Pete Helzer and Mrs. Hilda Kapachukia of Milwaukie, Mrs. Carl Dick of Hillsboro, Mrs. August Hieckethier and Sophia Zresman of Cedar Mill and brothers Adolph of Portland, Max of Kelso and Ernest of Scappoose.

Services were conducted Friday, December 3 at 1 p.m. at Finley's Morninglight Chapel by Elders Engstrom and Thomas. Interment at Union Cemetery, Cedar Mill.

Rudolf Mueller

Funeral services for Rudolf Bernard Mueller, 51, driver of Beaverton high school bus No. 8 since the first of this semester, who died December 2 at his home in Aloha were observed December 7 at the Masonic Temple in Beaverton with Reverend Albert King officiating. Beaverton Masonic lodge, of which he was a member and the Order of Job's Daughters presented the service. Melvin Beeler sang two solo numbers, "Rock of Ages" and "Abide With Me."

Mr. Mueller was born in Tulsa, Oklahoma, May 6, 1897. He had lived in Oregon for the past 13 years, 11 of them in Aloha.

On November 10, he was taken to Jones hospital, in Hillsboro, and later to the Good Samaritan in Portland, because of the effect from a brain concussion caused by a fall during his childhood. He had been in ill health for several years.

Because of marked improvement by the hospital care, Mr. Mueller came home the day before Thanksgiving.

He was a member of Capitol Nebraska and Beaver Chapter, Nebraska and Beaverton Chapter, No. 106, OES, Beaverton.

Surviving are his wife, Esther, of Aloha, mother, Mrs. Ida Mueller and sister, Frieda, of Ajo, Arizona and one brother, Mike, of White Plains, N.Y.

Private commitment was at Riverview Abbey Crematorium. Pegg Mortuary was in charge of arrangements.

REBEKAH NOTES

The Beaverton Rebekah Lodge met Tuesday evening, Nov. 30. A special meeting had been called for the visit of the President of the Rebekah Assembly Christine Smith. About 150 were in attendance including members from Silver Leaf, Multnomah, Sterling, Enterprise, Acme, Mt. View, Vesperine, Tigard, Hillsboro and Scholls Lodges.

Five candidates were initiated into Beaverton Lodge and four for Ruby Lodge of Scholls. A lovely tribute to the President Christine Smith was put on by the Past Noble Grands with Mabel Gilmore as chairman.

A social hour followed with Mrs. Catherine Gillette as chairman. The Beaverton Rebekah Needle and Social Club met Friday at the home of Mae Lusk with Minnie Hedgepeth assisting for a pot luck lunch at noon. Twenty five members were in attendance. An exchange of gift was held and the Christmas party for Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and their families was planned.

Club officers for the new year were elected as follows: Mrs. Vera Dashney, president; Mrs. Florence Heard, vice president; Mrs. Thelma Barron, secretary; Mrs. Hazel Maly, treasurer. The next meeting will be held at the hall in Beaverton with Mrs. Lucille Jones and Mrs. Hazel Maly as hostesses.
