

NEW MERCHANDISING blood was brought to Huber, with the opening of the Huber Market by Mr. and Mrs. Merle Weathers. The two young people, early in 1948, added their enthusiasm to the forward march of the Aloha-Huber area.

CHARMING TIGARD BRIDS was Dorothy Lorraine Milroy, who married William Joseph Hynes, of Tigard, on December 10, 1947. Early in 1948, the young couple made their home in Tigard, where Mrs. Hynes is associated with the West Coast Telephone Co.

ACTIVITIES OF JOB'S DAUGHTERS gave social and ritualistic outlet for the younger set. Shown in the illustration is one group of officers of the Beaverton chapter, Bethel 20, which served during the first part of 1948.

IN WEST PORTLAND, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Orchard established a new home, following their marriage on September 3. The bride was Miss Maudie Ivy Noyes, of Orofino, Idaho.

GRADUATION THRILLS made big news to many young people who passed beyond the grade school classification. Here is the Metzger class who received diplomas on May 27.

4-H Leaders Will Meet at OSC on January 25, 26, 27

The Annual 4-H Leaders Conference on the campus of Oregon State College has been set for three weeks to land in Arizona, after stops in San Francisco, Carmel-by-the-Sea, Ventura, Long Beach, Las Vegas, Grand Canyon and Boulder Dam. They expect to go on to New Mexico and then through Old Mexico.

Wish for a Merry Christmas is extended to all their friends, especially the kids.

January 25, 26, 27 reports Joe Cox, County Extension Agent.

A full program of leader training, subject matter and recreational material has been planned for the three day meeting. One of the highlights will be the annual leaders' banquet at which time outstanding leaders are honored for their achievements.

Those planning to attend are urged to contact Joe Cox, County Extension Agent at an early date so that hotel reservations can be made.

DRIVES TO CALIF.

Mr. Veldon Newcomb of Greenwood Drive drove to Garberville, Cal. to spend Christmas with his parents.

EVERYBODY WENT TO CARNIVALS, in the Tualatin Valley, it seemed. Churches, lodges, PTA's and schools resorted to this traditional community means of raising funds for the good work that was to be done.

The crowd shown here is at Tigard. But it was a scene that was easily reproduced in every community within the Tualatin Valley.

HUNGRY AND ILL CLOTHED people in other parts of the world were noted and assisted by people in the valley, during the year

For Europe, for Asia, for Africa and even for unfortunate victims at Vanport, close to home, the cries for help were answered. Here is a shipment, gathered at Beaverton, which was destined via Church World Relief.
