God's Folks Lied

IN BIBLE TIMES a man and his wife sold a piece of property and spread the story that they gave the whole sale price to the poor among the Lord's people. This was a lie, for they held out part of the sale price for themselves. They were reminded that the land was their own to do with as they pleased and they need not have given any of the money. The husband was told they had not lied to men but to God. At this he fell down dead and later when the wife came in, she too confessed to the lie and God also struck her dead. Acts 5:1-11.

BEST TO GO STRAIGHT
Right then and there God ruled against sin among his saved people. This man and wife were both saved, for they had laid hold on Christ as having died for them. At that, God gave them new birth into eternal life. Then they put over this lie and so far as this world had to do, God cut them off.

GET BACK INTO STEP
If we say we have no sin we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. Confess your sins and God forgives and cleanses you. So ruled the Apostle John after sixty years as leader and pastor. 1st John 1:8-9. Live to the glory of God. Look to Christ for strength and see old sinful ways drop off like dead leaves.

TRADE LANES

After Wednesday's snow and cold and the weatherman's promise of more to come over the week-end, you and I may bundle up against the cold, cold prospects, but GEORGE FAIRCHILD of the Beaverton Pharmacy assures us that our weather is a mere nothing, a gust of wind with a few flakes of white. It's all comparative, he says, and George is comparing it with the big blizzard of 1888 which he happened to witness.

"Now there was something to complain about," Fairchild said. He was living on a farm in Colorado and remembers the day particularly because he couldn't get to school. The blizzard was so furious, you couldn't find your way to the barn from the house and actually couldn't see three feet ahead. The storm lasted three days and two men in Fairchild's little town, perished in the bitter cold. * * * After hearing that you'll agree we're having BALMY weather.

Lorenz Falk of Falk's Hardware reports that his new home on Menlo Drive has been completed except for the landscaping. * * * To celebrate, the Falks had a few friends out to dinner Sunday night. * * * After an illness of several days Jean Hoelt is again waiting on customers at Tillman's Tip Top.

Rumor has it that three businesses will soon locate in the old Pegg Mortuary in the Grange Building—an amusement center, a men's wear store and a sewing center where women can rent sewing machines on the premises. * * * BILL HARTER, ex G. I. is learning the bakery trade at the BEAVERTON BAKERY. The boy mixes a mean batch of dough already according to JIM KIELY.

Latest Beaverton resident is FRANK SANKEY, yard salesman at Kingsley-Beaverton who has rented a house on Davis avenue. He and his wife looked long and hard before they found something. By the way, Frank is quite a yarn spinner. * * * ask him to tell you the one that ends * * * SHUT UP YOU! * * * Jack Grauer of Grauer & Ackerman took a week off to do a little skiing in Sun Valley. * * * MRS. STELLA STARKIE of Tot Shop writes in to say that she is enjoying her buying and visiting trip in Chicago and expects to return to Beaverton in about two weeks.

Appreciation for the big public turnout at his drawing last Saturday night, was expressed by Marion Ash of Super Service. Of the 20 prizes awarded, 17 were won by Beaverton residents. * * * HAZEL PAXSON of Pegg's Mortuary and her husband who is connected with Swank Motors in Hillsboro are leaving for the National Automobile Dealers Convention to be held in San Francisco next week.

HINTS TO SHOPPERS: Marshall-Wells Stores' Annual January 9c sale is now on at the Beaverton Hardware. * * * ED ZUMWALT and MARBLE COOK assure us that this is a REAL sale with plenty of hot specials. * * * Top news of the week for local shoppers is the new SATURDAY IS BEAVERTON DAY specials offered by local merchants in today's issue. * * * Every one of the merchants guarantees the specials to be super values, priced at their cost or less.

JOHN WATERS, salesman at the W. J. McCready Lumber Co., says that it's mighty quiet around his home with his wife and the two babies visiting her family in Liverpool, England. Waters married his wife while stationed in England during the war. Her last letter, received the other day, stated she is getting homesick for Beaverton and expects to leave for here soon. * * * It won't be quiet much longer, John!

They're observing the second month wedding anniversary at the Wayne Drake residence in Beaverton. * * * but actually they're an old married couple. The unusual story is that Wayne who works at the Teresi Food Center remarried his wife after they were separated for nine years. * * * There's a woman who really got her man—but twice! * * * Latest on the five prospective fathers as reported in this column last week, is that one of the five has just been notified by his wife's doctor to prepare himself for twins.

VISITORS FOR WEEK
Mrs. Joe Dyrland and children and Mrs. Charles Brown of Eckville Alberta, Canada and Mr. Daniel Kelly of Redding, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Sarti. Mr. Kelly is Mrs. Sarti's brother. They plan to be here a week.
