

TRADE LANES

Top business news of the week in Beaverton is that the Beaverton Pharmacy definitely is taking over the old Safeway location with an ambitious remodeling program to start shortly. Boyd and Fairchild pass the word that their new drug store will be modern to the nth degree. Plans to lease their present location, they say, to another local business man, have been completed. . . . Details are to follow on both ventures.

Doc Blaha, Aloha dentist, is passing out cigars to celebrate the latest addition to the Blaha family, Kenneth Erwin, 6 pounds, 15 ounces, born Tuesday at the Wilcox Memorial Hospital. Doc says he would have passed out 25c cigars to the boys if junior had weighed in at seven pounds. * * * This illustrates how important one extra ounce of baby can be to a smoker.

DON WALKER and "FRAN" HOLBOKE accompanied by their wives took a two-day jaunt down to Gearhart this last week end. Plenty of snow there too, they say. * * * If you leave anything at the Beaver Theatre, call for it before 10 days, according to word from HAROLD GUINNESS who says that uncalled for items will be turned over to charity after a holiday period of 10 days.

BILL SEIBERTS and BOB GALES, local furniture men will leave this week end to attend the national furniture show to be held in San Francisco next week. * * * The new addition to the Aloha Variety store is almost shipshape. * * * ROSIE advises us that they are moving their stock into the new section and will use the older part of the store as living quarters. * * * Winner of the Mixmaster offered to patrons of Tillman's Tip Top was AL HEUER of La Portone. HARRY ROTHSCHILD states that a portable radio will be given away next to some lucky winner (not you or I, of course).

A denial that the First Security Bank will open a branch in Cedar Mill Park within the foreseeable future was made by JAY GIBSON, bank president, contrary to rumors about town that the bank contemplated such a move.

JESSE SILL, old time Beaverton resident and photographer will be at Walker's Saturday afternoon to greet old friends. * * * Sill, who photographed many youngsters a long time ago, expects that these same youngsters will be bringing their children in to see him.

The art exhibit at the Beaverton Furniture is in full swing with Alfred Patecky, Oregon artist, slated to deliver a lecture on modern art at 3 p.m. Saturday at the store. * * * Voted man of the week among grocery men was LYLE RICH whose wife, Charlotte, presented him with a strapping baby girl last Saturday. * * * The newcomer to Beaverton, GWENDOLYN LEE, tipped the scales at eight pounds, four ounces, reason enough for Lyle's expanded chest.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Holland, former owners of the Aloha Theatre visited at the JIM JERSEY home last Monday evening. Others who made up the little gathering were Mr. and Mrs. ROY BRIGGS and Mr. and Mrs. Al Farrier. * * * Winner of the tag counting contest held at the Beaverton Hardware last Saturday was Mrs. Benton Douglas of Beaverton. * * * She guessed 213 tags closest to the actual number which was 209, to win a pressure cooker. * * * Consolation prize went to J. H. Cole whose guess was 201.

It appears that JACK WEIBY, Beaverton city councilman comes by his political acumen honestly. * * * We hear that his uncle has been elected mayor of Silverton, proving that politics runs in the family.

REMINDER TO JACK: Harry Truman was a haberdasher and look where he is now! * * * on which tenuous piano note, we'll sound off for this week.
