Students Elect Class Officers For Rest of Yr.

Bob Casteel, senior, Beaton Gredvig, junior, Paul Strandberg, sophomore, and Glen Gordon, freshman, have been chosen presidents of their respective classes for the balance of this semester.

Other officers were: seniors—Harold Wannebo, vice president; Kathleen McClure, secretary; Al Davis, treasurer; Hans Stroeve, reporter; Joan Renner, pianist; Chuck Hullings, song leader; Inez Glimm and Willie Anderson, yell leaders.

Juniors—Don Metcalfe, vice president; Sally Stearns, secretary; Jim Gregory, treasurer; Helen Stevens, reporter; Wanda Ganger and Marilyn Brewster, yell leaders; Beverly Blank, song leader; Georgia Slocum, pianist; Rosemary Sledge, talent scout; Paul Bell and Dale Lindsay, sergeants-at-arms.

Sophomores—Ellen Smith, vice president; Pat Traner, secretary; Eddie Zurlueh, treasurer; Bob Speer, reporter; Anita Ghiglietti, song leader; Jeanette Nelson and Ramon Senn, yell leaders; Virginia Berger, pianist.

Freshmen—Alan Taylor, vice president; Doreenl Zvahlen, secretary; Mary Jo Connell, treasurer; Vanda Benson, reporter. Song leader and yell leaders will be chosen later.

TRADE LANES

The ENTERPRISE is rapidly becoming a clearing house for lost dogs ever since we mentioned our success in locating the finders BEFORE the distraught owners ran an ad with us. Last TUESDAY GEORGE GORDON, piano tuner, who lives in Aloha, dropped in to say that his prize greyhound had vanished, and would we please run an ad or do something. GEORGE was tickled pink to learn that ORVILLE POULIN, local barber, had phoned us just a few minutes earlier to report he had found a greyhound. . . . Next. . . .

DANA PORTER, jeweler in Walker's Department Store, passed cigars around Tuesday to celebrate the arrival of a spanking baby girl, weight eight pounds 12 ounces. Because the baby was born on Washington's birthday, Dana is considering naming her Martha or Georgiana. Incidentally the score at the Porter household now stands at two girls and one boy with Dana noncommittal on when the score will be evened.

The wet weather didn't bother DALE JONES of the Electric Home Store, Aloha, who took off for the coast early this week to do a little fishin' with his brand new rod. . . . Mrs. Jones says that Optimist Dale expects to nab a mess of steelhead. . . . IVAN WOLMACK, old time Beaverton baker is back at the Beaverton Bakery helping JIM mix the dough, bringing the staff now to a total of five. . . . MRS. EMMA LANCTOT of the Beaverton Pharmacy is waiting on trade again after an absence of several days caused by siege of the flu.

FLORENCE GARRISON, owner of Florence's Sewing Center, announces she will be in her new location in the Grange Building by April 2, open and ready for business. Assisting her will be Crystal Shearer, Mrs. Myrtle Snarr and Mrs. Esther Judy. . . . The new face at JIM COWIE'S Hazeldale Store belongs to Jim's dad who has come around to help out with the business. . . . Jim's clientele (mostly small fry who leap out when the school bus comes to a stop) has a habit of coming in droves.

Idea of the week belongs to BILL GRAUER of Grauer and Ackerman who has come up with the suggestion that Beaverton inaugurate a "Clean-Up Week". Purpose of the campaign, according to Grauer would be to clean up, paint up, fix up around town with the intention of making Be-

Storm Damage to Property At Beach Requires Survey

Beaverton a town to be proud of. Of great concern to Grauer was the poor impression necessarily made on visitors as they drove into Beaverton. Grauer compared the town to Gresham pointing out that at one time Gresham too had a dreary appearance, until the brushes, hammers, sickles, etc.

HINTS TO SHOPPERS: Note the many new low prices on food advertised this week. Savings are considerably over last week's ads. An excellent value in a new Westinghouse refrigerator is being offered by Beaverton Furniture. Falk's Hardware in Haskell Shopping Center HAS Sunbeam Coffee masters and Iron masters although we forgot (a bad, bad habit we have!) to include it in their ad. A new service inaugurated by Bech's Florist permits you to wire flowers to any part of the world (they don't send them over the wires, we learned, merely wire a code to florist in the town designated who delivers your order). . . .

We understand on good authority that Aloha's new fire truck will make its appearance very, very shortly, ready and able to get to work should the occasion arise. This community enterprise has already saved the local people considerable money on their fire insurance.

Michael Brewer

Funeral services for Michael LaRue Brewer, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. Brewer, Route 2, Beaverton, were held in Youngs funeral home, Hillsboro, February 22. Reverend Pearson, of Portland officiated.

The baby was born February 1 and died February 19, aged eighteen days.

Commitment was to the Hillsboro cemetery.
