From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

How's Your Listening Time?

Buck Howell and I were in Balville last week. Dropped in at Bob's diner where some friends were sitting around talking about whether to sell hogs now or wait. Buck plunges right into the discussion. He's lecturing away when suddenly they all stand up and start stomping their feet like it was an Indian war dance. I'm flabbergasted. But Buck only looked sheepish and explains, "Guess I was talking again, when I should-of been listening. When a person's talking time gets out of line with his listening time around here, the gang reminds him by standing up and stomping." From where I sit, that's a good system. Everyone has a right to their opinions—but others have a right to theirs, too—whether it's deciding between to sell or not to sell, apple pie or cherry pie, or a glass of mellow beer or cider. Life's more interesting that way, and hang it if you don't sometimes learn something! Joe Marsh
