LIST OF COMMUNITY'S NEEDS

CEDAR MILL—Among projects presented to members of the Community Club Wednesday evening at a regular meeting in the schoolhouse by the civic and industry committee were installations of a drop box centrally located for mailing packages and other mail; stop lights and signs at strategic points and a recreational project for development of schoolground property. C. W. Cover, L. S. Uppinghouse and F. W. Merewether were named to serve on a committee to formulate plans for the proposed recreational area for approval of the club and district.

L. S. Uppinghouse reported plans for a lively membership test with the men opposing the women. A period of three months is set as the duration of the contest with score being determined by a point system for members and attendance.

Plans for finishing the Boy Scout cabin were discussed with emphasis on trying to complete the project this summer. Much progress has already been made with volunteer labor.

The St. Patrick's party, planned for club members and prospective members, March 19, at 8:30 p.m. was announced. The evening will feature games, entertainment and refreshments with a St. Patrick's theme predominating.

A program of hilarious comedy in the form of a radio truth or consequence program with variations was offered following the business meeting. Leading participants included Lloyd Woodell, technician; Jack Miner, announcer; Leonard Uppinghouse, master of ceremonies; Mrs. Dave Ediger, beautician and Mr. Dave Ediger, Mrs. Jack Mutchler and Mr. Archie Moore, judges.

Refreshments and a social hour concluded the evening.
