MISS STILL FIGHTS

Little Miss Jennie Puckett, two and a half year old granddaughter of Hazel Puckett, of Beaverton, who suffered a ruptured appendix months ago, is still fighting the condition with hopes for recovery soon.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Puckett of Sheridan, the little girl had tonsils and adenoids removed last Friday, to correct a heart murmur. Removal of appendix is expected in about three weeks.

All in all, according to report, she is doing nicely.

TRADE FOLLOWS BARBER

When Pat Moore decided to make a brave venture of his own he didn't count on the loyalty of his regular customers to help him out.

Before the war and since August of 1945, Pat has held a post of tonsorialist (barber in other words) at the Studio Barber shop, on Broadway. About a month ago, he had the opportunity to acquire a situation at Lake Grove, on the northeast end of Oswego Lake.

Since his move, Pat declares, there is hardly a day but what a customer of his from Beaverton fails to look him up in his new location.
