Nazarene Church Announces Holy Wk. Observance

Holy week services which began Wednesday evening will climax Friday evening with the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper. The services are characterized by special music from various combinations and a sermon by the pastor. Good Friday's message will be, "Salvation—What a Price".

Easter Sunday promises to be an eventful and truly worshipful day. The day begins with the Easter dawn service sponsored by the young people of the Church on Cooper Mountain at 6:30 a.m. followed by a fellowship breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bedford, and continuing at 10:15 a.m. with the Easter program by the Sunday School and Easter message by the pastor—"The Triumph of Easter"—and closing this glorious day with a special musical program and a retrospective Easter message by the pastor.

The local Church of the Nazarene is participating in what is hoped will be the most outstanding Easter missionary offering the denomination has raised. $1,000,000 is anticipated in this offering to maintain present fields and enlarge the Nazarene missionary work.

The community in and around Beaverton is cordially invited to attend the remaining Holy Week services, and join in the worship of the risen Lord on this glad Easter Day.

Church of Christ Sets Morning Hr. Easter Services

The Easter services at the Church of Christ will start promptly at 9:45 a. m. with a program by the different departments and orchestra of the Bible school as follows: Song, Welcome Eastertide, first year juniors; exercise by beginners department; exercises by primary department; selection by the Bible school orchestra; scripture reading by 2nd year juniors; piano solo, Marlene Cook; recitations, "Lily Petals", Glenn Ely, "Love You Work", Allen Marsh; song, orchestra, Bible school chorus and congregation.

This will be followed by the regular church service with sermon and special music by the choir. The services will close with the usual Bible school classes with the offering to be taken for the Northwest Christian Home.

Canyon Baptists Hear Message on Easter Morning

The Easter services of the Canyon Road Baptist Church will be held next Sunday morning in the Odd Fellows Hall, 53 N. Broadway, Beaverton.

The children and the young people will give a special program in the latter part of the Sunday School, which opens at 9:45, and the pastor, Rev. Russell B. Thomas, will preach in the 11 o'clock service on the subject, "What Baptists Believe—An Easter Message".

Special Easter music will also be featured. Parents and friends are invited to come for the Sunday School program and stay for the worship services. Everybody is welcome.

GOOD FRIDAY MUSIC

Good Friday services will be observed at the Church of Christ Friday evening at 8 p. m. There will be special music by the choir.

Mrs. Frank Zimbric will sing "Calvary", and George Springer will play a trumpet solo "The Holy City." A message will be given by the pastor on "The Crucifixion." Everybody is invited.

SPECIAL FOR EASTER

Sunday there will be special Easter services at the Church of Christ beginning with a children's program at 9:45. The program will include music by the church orchestra.

Special music will be presented by the choir following the program and an Easter message by the pastor on the topic "The First Born from the Dead."

CONG. FELLOWSHIP

The Women's Fellowship of the Bethel Congregational Church will meet Tuesday evening, April 19 at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. M. C. McKercher is in charge of the program. She has obtained J. D. Wilson, supervisor of Farm Placement Division of Oregon State Employment Service. He will speak on the subject "Back to the Harvest" or problems of the migratory workers.

Mrs. Charles Shively will lead the worship and Miss Pauline Drew will sing.

Hostesses are Mrs. Herbert Mason, Miss Amarette Barnes and Miss Bernice Conoly.

COMEDY FILMS RETURN FAVOR FOR YOUTH PROGRAM AT PTA

McKAY-WHITFORD—: McKay P. T. A. elected their new officers for the coming year Friday night at the April meeting. Mrs. Ernest Rabe was elected president; Mrs. Harold Richards, 1st vice president; Mrs. John Altenhofen, 2nd vice president; Mrs. C. C. Chadwick, secretary; Mr. James Farmer, treasurer.

The new officers will be installed at the May meeting.

The youth groups entertained the parents with an excellent show. Each group presented a number of their own and an applause meter would have had to be employed to determine the favorite as all drew a big hand. For children who have little opportunity to entertain before the public due to the lack of an auditorium or gymnasium large enough to accommodate both students and parents, they did an excellent job, it is reported.

The spirit of cooperation with each other and their advisors is one lesson they have learned in their club work. The youth group leaders devoted a lot of time and hard work to make this performance possible.

In return for entertaining the parents the children were rewarded with one hour of motion picture comedies while the business meeting was being held.

Coffee and cake were served for refreshments.

ATTEND CIVIC THEATER

McKay 4-H Sew 1 B class attended the civic theater in Portland on April tenth to see the play, "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater". After the play the group enjoyed dinner at Jolly Joan's.

Those attending and their guests were Elsie Sanders, Marjorie Altenhofen, Jackie Brown, Julia Ghiglietti and Juanita Canida.

Mrs. B. F. Blethen, their leader, accompanied them. A similar trip is planned for her group the Sewing 1A shortly.

MOVE ON TO EUGENE

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Pettijohn formerly of McKay district are moving from Gearhart to Eugene where Mr. Pettijohn is in construction work.

BUSINESS IN CALIF.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Noble and Mrs. Noble's mother, Mrs. Sarah Kerns left for California on a business trip last week.
