SCHOOL PROGRAM ANSWERS YEN FOR THOSE "FAR AWAY PLACES"

HAZELDALE-COOPER MOUNTAIN—To answer the popular yen for those "Far Away Places", all four rooms of the Hazeldale school presented a ten-act comedy by that name at the school, April 22. A large number attended the affair.

Hazel Bergquam, Mary Enchede, Elizabeth Thompson and Anna Rasmussen, teachers, directed the production.

Program included, "Captain of the Fantasia", Leroy Berger; "Sailor's Dance", Deloris Buckmiller, Beth Ehler, Maud Webb, Mita Rickelt, Marilyn Wright, Nadine Jensen, Nadine Shaper and Jene Arbogast.

"Children of Gallaway" was played by Beverly Calhoun, Pat Anderson, Mary Smurthwaite, Marcia Collett, Allen Tauscher, Jimmie Carey, Edward Higgs, Rodney Johnson. They were all in costume. Nineteen children of the primary room presented "Spring in an English Garden."

The "Seven Singing Irishmen" were Jimmie Cary Jerry Ehler, Rodney Johnson, Richard Stout, Jimmie Cowie, Edward Higgs and Allen Tauscher. They also were in costume.

Twenty-four children in costumes of the old days, put on "Pioneers in 1860." The stage practically ran wild with wild Indians.

Twelve boys and girls acted out, "In the Village of Scandahoovia" with routine, words and music worked up by Miss Bergquam.

Twenty-two were in the case of "Latin American Neighbors." Marilyn Wright, Berdine Huth, Renata Gutknecht and Colleen Gamrath took part in "Home Again" which included the Buttons and Bows dance.

Last number was a kangaroo court, with Mr. Collett as master of ceremonies. Culprits were called from the audience. M. W. Gamrath, Harold Shaper and Jim Covie performed the Buttons and Bows dance in costume. Ed Berger and Mrs. Gladys Hesterlee sang a duet. Mr. Shaper, C. D. Walker, Mrs. Enchede and Mrs. Jensen walked up and down the aisle with a piece of chalk on a ruler. Mr. Collett and Mrs. Bergquam offered a dance finale.

Room mothers served coffee, doughnuts and soda pop. Proceeds of the evening, which amounted to $40, will be used to help purchase a sound movie projector for the school.

COOPER - DALE OFFICERS

The Cooper-Dale Garden club met April 20 at the home of Mrs. Mable Burge, with Mrs. Hilda Pierson as co-hostess. Twenty-one members and two visitors were present. New officers for the ensuing year were installed as follows: Mrs. Carrie Kinneman, president; Mrs. John Rhorbach, vice president; Mrs. Hazel Johnson, secretary and Mrs. Margaret Weaver, treasurer. Mrs. Blakeney of Beaverton did the installing.

Corsages were presented to the incoming officers. Other officers of the club are, librarian, Mrs. Broad; historian and publicity, Mrs. R. E. Jensen sick committee, Mrs. Hilda Pierson, program committee, Mrs. Babe Livermore and Mrs. Gladys Hesterlee. The club presented Mrs. Babe Livermore and Mrs. Vic Malxner the out going officers with a rhododendron each, a scrap book with all the club pictures and the activities of the club for the past two years. There was a gift exchange for the polyannas.

Next meeting of the club will be May 18, at the home of Mrs. Carrie Kinneman, with Mrs. Zen Struthers as co-hostess. It will be potluck at 12:30 and a plant sale will be held sharply at 2 p.m.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to the out going officers.
