

TRADE LANES

Saturday is scheduled to be a busy day in Beaverton with crowds of people expected to take advantage of the many shopping values slated for that day. First on the agenda is the Saturday Beaverton Day promotion listing 24 top-notch shopping values. Merchants participating in this event have marked sale items down to or below actual cost.

Another inducement to shoppers to come to town Saturday is the big formal opening of the Beaverton Pharmacy. In addition to giving away gardenias to the ladies and ice cream to the kiddies the pharmacy is offering a host of door prizes.

Marble Cook and Ed Zumwalt of the Beaverton Hardware are observing a dual anniversary this week, the third anniversary of their store and Marshall Wells' 21st Anniversary sale. The event is featured by a storewide sale in all departments. . . now in progress.

Winners in the Guess-the-buttons-in-the-jar contest at Florence's Sewing Center were Mrs. P. D. Christerson and Mrs. W. P. Steinmetz, both of West Slope. Their guess was 625 buttons, the actual number being 627. Mrs. W. H. Engleke of Beaverton, broke the seal on the jar and officiated.

Another drawing slated for Saturday is to take place at 8 p.m. at Ash Automotive Hancock Service, the big prize in this case is being kept a secret. According to Ash, it is a "Mystery" prize.

The West Slope Lions Club had a good turnout at their meeting in the Old Heidelberg Restaurant

STUDENTS' PROGRAM OBSERVES MUSIC WEEK AT PTA SESSION

Monday night. The fellows watched a motion picture following the banquet. . . The 100,000th prescription customer offered a five-pound box of chocolates at Deans Drug Store will probably receive it this weekend according to Roy Mourer who says the fateful number should show very shortly.

A series of "Ain't It The Truth" advertisements sponsored by the Beaverton Junior Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with Beaverton merchants, makes its start in this issue of the Enterprise. The series will point out the advantages of community shopping versus the disadvantages of big-city shopping. Designed to stimulate local buying, the advertisements will appear weekly in the Enterprise. Free movie tickets are offered readers who find their names among the sponsors' signatures.

RALEIGH HILLS—: Mrs. Dean Ridley was installed as the new president of the Raleigh Parent-Teacher association at their regular meeting held Tuesday, May 3. Other officers to assist her during the coming year include Mrs. Neil Whisnant, vice-president; Mrs. Lloyd Jackson, secretary; Mrs. Neil Agen, treasurer and Mrs. C. N. Parker, Jr., publicity chairman.

The first part of the meeting was given over to a music program by the students in observance of Music Week. Following the installation of new officers committee chairmen for the past year gave a resume of the groups activities.

The main project of the season has been a study of school legislation enacted at the recent session of the state legislature. A representative of the League of Women Voters led discussions of the various measures pertaining to education as they were brought up for passage.

This year the association has combined their study groups with their regular meetings so that a wider group of people would be reached. Study courses from the National PTA magazine formed the basis for part of the discussions. An effort was made to coordinate home and school activities.

A tea is being planned for later this month to honor the new officers and the faculty.

RALEIGH GARDEN CLUB

The Raleigh Hills Garden club observed its second anniversary at a meeting held May 10 at the home of Mrs. Lowell Ganger on S. W. Newton Place. Election of officers for the coming year was held.

GIRL SCOUTS PICNIC

Girl Scout Troop 120 is planning a picnic supper in the form of a cook-out for later this month at one of the Portland parks. They announced excellent results from their recent cookie sale.

CUB SCOUTS HIKE

Cub Scouts of Pack 592 plan a hike May 14 under the direction of Carlton Wood, assistant scout master. Preparations for a picnic are underway for either May 22 or June 5 depending on the weather. Parents and friends of the group will be invited. It will be held at Avalon Park.

A new Den has been added to Pack 592. It was formed April 29 at a meeting of the entire Pack. Mrs. Craig Berg will be the Den Mother assisted by Mrs. Vincent Nessen. Following formation of the new Den, badges and awards earned were presented to Pack members. At the first meeting of the new Den, the members qualified for the right to wear their scout uniforms.

Considerable ivory is obtained from vast stores of mastodon and mammoth tusks found in Siberia and elsewhere.

Porpoises believed to be 300 to 400 years old are found on the Galapagos Islands.

How Would You Say It?

Curley Lawson's cousin from back East and a few of us got talking when he was here visiting, and I couldn't help noticing how different he said things.

For instance, he said, "Lifting that 200-pound bag of cement almost killed me." "You mean sack of cement?" asks Curley. (That's the way we'd say it.) "No," interrupts young Elliott who'd spent a lot of time down South, "He means a 'poke of see-ment.'"

It was good for a chuckle, anyway. Bag, sack or poke—we knew what he was trying to say. It just depends on where you are in the U. S., which way sounds right.

From where I sit, whenever we criticize someone for sounding funny to us, we ought to think how we sound to them. It's the same as choosing your liquid refreshment. I'm accustomed to a moderate glass of beer—you may like ginger ale—but who's to say the other's wrong? I'd say we're both right!
