TRADE LANES

An unusually large number of people were noted in Beaverton last Saturday, proving that thought-out promotion on the part of the merchants of any town can develop the community center into a thriving shopping area. All that has to be done to create local shopping habits on the part of people of the community is to give them REASONS for coming into the town. In this case it was a combined Saturday-Is-Beaverton-Day promotion plus the opening of the Beaverton Pharmacy that did the trick. Local merchants need have no fear of the pull from Portland, so long as shoppers can see identical prices combined with better service and conveniences right in their home area. The idea is to SHOW them that they DO have those advantages here.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayer, formerly of Seaside, have taken over Bailey's Ice Cream Parlor. They will continue to feature home-made ice cream as well as light lunches. Another sale along the same line was made with the purchase of Jack Gleason's Skyway Cafe on Canyon Road last week to Mr. and Mrs. Vern Hale of Hillsboro. A remodeling job is planned for the cafe.

Beaverton Business Men's Club will hold a meeting Thursday night (May 19) at the Kiwanis Hall at the usual time. This organization is to be congratulated on their efforts to relieve the parking congestion in Beaverton. The officer patrolling the downtown area during the day on a motorcycle, keeping all-day parkers off the main streets, is part and parcel of their program.

This column plays the role of Cupid's little reporter again, passing the reliable tip that William McRoberts, driver at McCready Lumber plans to walk to the altar sometime next month. The bride-to-be, we understand, is a Gales Creek girl. . . . The Beaverton Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a Mother-Daughter banquet at the grade school cafeteria on May 26. A feature of the program will be a style show sponsored by Starkie's of Haskell Center, Beaverton and the Chez Suzy shop of West Slope. . . .

Readers who have wondered how the winners are chosen in the Teresi Food Center contest, will be interested to know that it is done by random picking. A number is chosen at random by the Food Center (900 for example). Then when the newspaper comes to number 900 on its addressograph, the subscriber whose name shows up, is mailed the newspaper bearing the winning picture.

American Legion Plans Circus As "Large Occasion"

HILLSBORO, May 12—(Special) First annual American Legion circus, slated for May 20 and 21 at the Shute Park pavilion, will be a "large occasion" declares Harold Wynne, general chairman. Plans include a pre-performance parade through the downtown streets of Hillsboro with a number of the stars of the show.

Jim Hicks, manager of the entertainment troupe, announces the circus will be a one-and-a-half to two hour show, featuring top-flight professional entertainment. Several of the eight separate acts of the troupe are taking part in the Shrine Circus being held at the Pacific International Livestock building in Portland. The group comes directly from performances in Madison Square Garden, New York, and Shrine circuses in Tacoma and San Francisco. Feature attraction will be internationally noted comedian, Wilbur Hall. Rudy Lachenmeyer, KGW sportscaster from West Slope, will act as master of ceremonies.
