

CLUB MEMBERS AND VISITORS WIN FLOWER HONORS MAY 14

RALEIGH —The flower show and sale of the Raleigh Garden club was pronounced successful by the membership and guests who attended. It was held in the Raleigh Hills school May 14.

Judges for the show included Mrs. Ray of the Multnomah Garden club, Mrs. Smith of Beaverton Garden club and Mrs. Farnand of the Portland Garden Club. The membership of the Raleigh club entertained the judges at luncheon at the Portland Golf club the day of the show.

There were many honors and blue ribbons won both by the members of the host organization and visiting clubs. Mrs. Gill of the Glencullen club won a blue ribbon and a tricolor while Mrs. Briggs of Raleigh took a tricolor and five blue ribbons. Other blue ribbon winners included from the Raleigh club: Dr. Messing, 1; Mrs. Whisnant, 2; Mr. Whisnant, 1; Mrs. Schultz, 3; Mrs. Lawrence, 2; Mr. Walters, 1; Mrs. Walters, 1; Mrs. Ganger, 1; and from the Dosch Diggers club Mrs. Williams, 1; Helen Swenson, 2; Mrs. Perry, 1; and Mrs. Starr, 1.

Tea was served at the show. The sale of flowers represented donations from both members and professional growers and formed a colorful part of the show.

At the last meeting of the Raleigh Garden club for the year new officers were elected and installed. Mrs. C. A. Walters will be the new president assisted by Mrs. Ray Lindsay as vice president; Mrs. Fred B. Massing, secretary, and Mrs. Neil Whisnant, treasurer. Mrs. Whisnant also served as chairman of the flower show and sale.

KITCHEN SHOWER

A bridal kitchen shower honoring Miss Wanda Dombrowski of Raleigh Hills was given May 12th at the home of Mrs. Minnie Green of Portland. Twenty-five guests were present.

Miss Dombrowski will become the bride of Chester W. Wojt of Portland on June 4th.

BALL WIN AND LOSS

Two teams from Raleigh Hills school played softball games with Beaverton grade school last Friday, the A team winning their clash while the B team dropped theirs. They will play McKay school this week.

MOTHERS' DAY PLAY

The school has discontinued departmental classes for the remainder of the school year to allow the children more time in which to complete the work in their other classes. The last meeting of the Raleigh student body was held May 12th. The fourth grade entertained with a Mother's Day play.

SUMMER CAMP EMPHASIZES COWBOY THEME JULY 5 TO 30

WEST SLOPE—Children from Beaverton, Raleigh and Sylvan have been invited to attend the pet show at Gabel school Friday May 20. Students of the school will bring their pets and there will be various concessions. It will last from 1 to 5 p.m.

The last grade meeting of the year was held with Mrs. Craig Berg and Mrs. Clair Miller as co-chairmen, Tuesday, May 17. Mr. Lawrence led the discussion.

The Gabel summer camp will have a cowboy theme this year and will be held at the school from July 5 to 30. It will include both boys and girls from the first to fourth grades. There will be one or two days of craft work each week with swimming at the Neighborhood House and a surprise hike or trip with lunch out each Friday. Buses will run from central points to the school. Further information may be had by calling the school office.

School will close June 9 at noon. June 8 will be a play day for all the grades.
