Beaverton Sends Six Delegates To Baptist Meeting

Six resident from the Beaverton area were numbered among the more than 4950 delegates and visitors attending the Northern Baptist Convention in San Francisco, from Monday through Friday of last week.

Representing Canyon Road Baptist church was Reverend and Mrs. Russell Thomas while Mr. and Mrs. Thurlow Weed, of Canyon Road and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Lutz of Murray avenue attended as delegates from the White Temple Baptist church of Portland. The Weeds and Lutzes returned June 5.

Approximately 75 delegates were present from the state of Oregon and they caucused separately. The convention was national in scope, taking in all member churches of the Northern Baptist segment and was held in the huge municipal auditorium in San Francisco.

REBEKAH PNC CLUB

The Beaverton Rebekah Past Noble Grands Club meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Leona Rands in Aloha has been postponed one week so will be held on June 16 for a pot luck luncheon with Mrs. Minnie Hedgepeth assisting.

Seventy Guests Fete 25th Anniv. In Legion Hall

MR. and MRS. C. B. WOODEN

Seventy guests were present at the American Legion hall, May 24, to help celebrate the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Wooden, 2050 N. E. Canyon Road, Beaverton. Mrs. Jack Walters, of Oswego, who was the original bridesmaid, was also present at this affair.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Joe Gilsdorf, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gilsdorf, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ostrander, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell, Mr. and

Brinsleys Leave June 15 To Visit Home in England

Scheduled to leave New York by steamer June 15, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Brinsley, who formerly lived on Sorrento Road at Davies, will embark on a visit to their homeland, England. They expect to return to the United States by August 1.

Before their departure, the Brinsleys disposed of their property to William Pinkney Turner from Texas. Mr. Turner is the grandfather of Ross Nicholson. Upon their return to this country, the Brinsleys expect to spend some time in Miami, Fla.

FOR HOSPITAL CARE

Mrs. Sam Taylor has been quite ill and entered Jones Hospital in Hillsboro on Sunday for treatment.

Mrs. Day, Mr. and Mrs. William Courtney, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton Goss, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Malhr, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Hallock, Mr. Craig Carrol, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hays, Mr. James Hildervand and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Miller, all of Portland.

Pouring were Mesdames Jack Walters and Bruce Steele, assisted by Mrs. Goss and Mrs. Stanley Malhr. Mrs. Vern A-well made coffee. Mrs. Ray McKee served punch. Mrs. Cecil Ostrander, daughter of the couple, cut the cake.

TRADE LANES

An interested crowd of observers visited Modern Interiors last Saturday during their formal opening, to see the displays of modern kitchen equipment. Winners of the door prizes were Vic Davis of Cashmyr Lane, West Slope and John Gelich of Hillsboro. The drawing was done by Mrs. R. W. Mulhausen of West Slope.

A new school of dancing is scheduled to open in Beaverton, Monday, June 13, at the American Legion Hall. Miss Jackie Locke who will head and teach the school is a well-known dancing instructor.

Fred Coons, assistant manager of the new Safeway store is off to an early vacation in the middle west. Fred, who is slated for a busy June (his son is graduating from school and a daughter is getting married) will visit his folks in Nebraska for two weeks.

Mel Shirley has opened the Aloha Electric Shop in the same location occupied by the Ehrlich Plumbing in Aloha. Mel, who has been doing electrical work for the past fifteen years in the surrounding community, plans to handle appliances at a later date.

Welby's new store now under construction in the former Beaverton Pharmacy location, promises to be a credit to the community, according to the building plans, which are strictly modern. No definite date for its completion has been made but Jack Welby assures us they'll move fast, when the moment comes. . . . Another open house, this one in Cedar Mill is planned for this Sunday afternoon by Ideal Food Market who will display their 500 new frozen food lockers. The lockers were built by Browning Cabinet Shop of Cedar Mill. Building and locker plant construction by Chas. M. Bowmen, Cedar Mill, and refrigeration by N.S.T. Refrigeration Co. of Portland. Also of interest—free coffee, cake and ice cream will be served, and the kiddies will get free balloons in addition.

The location formerly occupied by Bilstad Linoleum will shortly be taken over by William Johnson who plans to operate Bill's Rich Maid Ice Cream Shop, featuring ice cream made the modern way.

We forgot to mention it in the ad (cuss that miserable memory in our ad dept.) but S & H Green stamps do go with purchase of the Zenith refrigerator at the Beaverton Hardware, even though they have their special $30.00 trade-in allowance.
